

- (i) The designated airline(s) of each Contracting Party shall have the right to match on services between the territories of the two Contracting Parties any tariff which is a publicly available lawful scheduled tariff or retail charter price, applicable to the same or adjacent points on the scheduled or charter services of another airline of either Contracting Party, on a basis which would not necessarily be identical but would be broadly equivalent.
 - (ii) The tariffs of the designated airline(s) of one Contracting Party for carriage between the territory of the other Contracting Party and points in third countries, can for the same class of service, match but shall not be lower, or their conditions less restrictive, than the tariffs of any scheduled airline of the other Contracting Party that applies between the same points.
- (b) Any tariff filed in accordance with paragraph 7(a) shall:
 - (i) include satisfactory evidence of the availability of the tariff which is being matched and of the consistency of matching with the requirements of this Article, and
 - (ii) unless otherwise agreed between the aeronautical authorities of the Contracting Parties, remain in effect only for the period of availability of the matched scheduled tariff or charter retail price.
8. A tariff established in accordance with the provisions of this Article shall remain in force during the published period of applicability, or until a new tariff has been established. Nevertheless, except as provided in paragraph 7.b.(ii) above, no tariff shall be prolonged by virtue of this paragraph for more than twelve (12) months after the date on which it otherwise would have expired.
9. The aeronautical authorities of both Contracting Parties shall endeavour to ensure as far as possible that
 - (a) the tariffs charged and collected conform to the tariffs accepted or approved by both aeronautical authorities; and
 - (b) no airline rebates any portion of such tariffs by any means.
10. Where this Article requires communicating in writing, it may be done by means of a letter, or any type of electronic communication, such as a telegram, telex or facsimile, that produces a printed text.

ARTICLE XV

Sales and Transfer of Funds

1. On the basis of reciprocity the designated airline(s) of each Contracting Party shall be free to sell air transport services in the territory of the other Contracting Party, and any person shall be free to purchase such transportation in currencies accepted for sale by that airline, subject to appropriate authorization and in accordance with the respective applicable national laws and regulations, either directly or at its discretion through its agents, in the local currency or in any freely convertible currency without preference or discrimination to any airline engaged in similar international air services.
