

Parliament—Con.

- Third session, opening, 1
- Twelve-hour day sittings do not allow time for proper consideration of government program, 151-54

Parliamentary Assistants. See GovernmentParliamentary System, strength of political democracy lies in, 206-07Passamaquoddy Power Project, international joint commission report on, 663Passports, issuance of to certain persons, 507-08Peace. See also North Atlantic Treaty; United Nations

- Defence expenditures a premium for, 298
- Economic basis for, 122-23. See also World Conditions
- Expenditures should have been made on a peace offensive instead of on armaments, 242
- Maintenance of, 129, 166-67, 199, 397. See also North Atlantic Treaty; United Nations and references in debate on Essential Materials (Defence Bill)
- All-out effort of Canadians needed, 162-63
- Prospects for, 117
- Through combined action of free nations, 111-16
- Test of democracy, 97
- Moral rearmament needed for, 259-61
- Not to be expected for a long time, 215-16
- Present situation, "hill of difficulty on path of peace", 419, 426, 470, 519, 598, 642-47
- Spiritual consideration needed as well as material, 247-48
- Winning of, Winston Churchill on, 213

Peace Petitions, communist backing, 392-93.
See also CommunismPeace River district of Alberta, crop losses, 285-86Pearkes, Mr. G. R. (Nanaimo)

- Address in reply, 130-34
- Active service, definition of, 499
- Airborne brigade, 312-13, 320-21
- Aircraft, provision of, 416-17
- Air transport, civilian employees, veterans' benefits for, 502
- Canadian forces bill, 440, 490-91, 497-502
- Defence, 132-34, 312-14, 320-22
- Estimates, future commitments, 400-01
- Expenditures, procedure for discussion, 314
- Inadequacy, 484-85
- Lack of information, 400

Pearkes, Mr. G. R.—Con.

- Defence appropriation bill, 294, 312-14, 320-22, 400-17, 428-34, 478-79, 484-85
- Defence industries, profiteering, 478-79
- Excise tax bill, 725
- Korean situation, 130-33, 294
- Navy destroyers in Korean waters, placing on active service, 490, 499
- Navy personnel in Korea, married allowances, 405-06
- Pacific coast defence, 130-31
- Reserve forces, enlistment of non-Canadian or non-British persons, 596, 723
- Royal Roads, B.C., housing project, 406
- Seamen's strike on Pacific coast, 110
- Tanks, 429-30
- Veterans, special force, benefits, 491
- Victoria, B.C., auxiliary air squadron for, 400

Pearson, Hon. L. B. (Secretary of State for External Affairs)

- Address in reply, 89-97, 219-27
- Aggression, countermeasures, 223-24, 375-77, 404
- Alaska highway, 507, 531
- Statement, 663
- Asiatic countries, aid to, 226
- Commonwealth by, relating to United Nations and United States programs, 396-97
- Copper exports, removal of United States tariff on, qu. (Mr. Catherwood) 315
- Defence appropriation bill, 311-12, 347-51, 375-77, 394-97, 404, 438, 486
- Far eastern commission report, tabled, 529
- Germany, western zone, action under North Atlantic treaty in event of an attack on, 351
- Government attitude to world situation, 226-27
- India, strengthening relations with, 396
- International situation, review of, 90-97
- Korea
  - Crisis in
    - Action on, 220-23
    - Report of External Affairs department, tabled, 107
  - Obligation to send troops to under United Nations charter, 351
  - United Nations campaign in, request for Canadian participation, qu. (Mr. Wright) 316
- London conference on assistance to south and southeast Asia, 396
- North Atlantic council, decision might be taken by majority in case of aggression, 377
- North Atlantic treaty
  - Allocation of equipment and orders for equipment under, 438
  - Extension of aid to commonwealth nations, 486