I do not think the present method is fair. That is not the purpose of these questions, and unless we can get some co-operation I withhold my consent.

Mr. Blais: Mr. Speaker, on the same point of order—

Mr. Speaker: Order, please. The Chair has asked whether it is the pleasure of the House that the questions referred to by the hon. parliamentary secretary shall be made orders for returns. It is not the pleasure of the House at this moment.

Mr. Blais: I rise on a point of order, Mr. Speaker—

Mr. Speaker: Order, please. With all due respect, the hon. member for Edmonton West has not raised a point of order which can be responded to. He has simply withheld his consent that the two questions be made orders for returns at this time.

Mr. Blais: May I move to motion?

Mr. Speaker: Shall the remaining questions be allowed to stand?

Some hon. Members: Agreed.
