

principally for former wars and present armaments.

8. But partial disarmament alone will not save us. If five or six big fellows have two rifles and three revolvers apiece and you take away one rifle and two revolvers from each of them, the situation remains unchanged.

L. H. ...