

February 3, 1927.

Alfred W. Martin, Esq.,
Society for Ethical Culture in the City of New York,
Central Park West and 64th Street,
New York.

Dear Mr. Martin:-

I was very much interested by your letter of January 27th. I agree with you that if it were possible to resuscitate the McGill Magazine, if necessary under another form, another name and another organization, nothing but good could ensue.

I will discuss the matter at once with some of the members of my staff and will write you later.

Yours faithfully,

Principal.