

Roman and Constitutional Law on the work of both years to be also held at this time.

- (c) at the end of the course on the work of the three years except Roman Law, Constitutional Law and International Law.

This will not only render cramming more difficult but will enable courses to be allotted on a basis of weeks instead of terms and will greatly simplify the task of allotting time to courses. It will also save two to three weeks in January which are now lost owing to cramming, to writing examinations and the inevitable re-action. The teacher remains, of course, quite free to test his students from time to time by test papers, quizzes, general discussion, or any way he sees fit.

2. That all candidates who successfully pass the written papers be subjected to a thorough oral examination by an examination board appointed by the Faculty.

In conclusion your committee wishes to point out that in submitting a draft curriculum it fully realizes that the draft is tentative and will have to be modified from time to time in the light of experience.

Much remains to be done in working out the details of the suggested readings in the various courses and in
