

[1787.

ought a
e gladly

itered a
some of
e in par-
against through finding y all in-
em from
ral mus-

expected,
d, which
the King
in Dixon
with all
the fore-
ed to the oon and
her, and
August at
hich bore
e evening
n a canoe,
ut to in-
ions had
sket balls
which

2787.]

[109]

which had been fired at them. They strove to make us understand that they harboured no resentment against us, and came only to acquaint us with the circumstance that had happened.

CHAP.