

*Let us fold away our fears
 And put by our foolish tears
 And through all the coming years
 Just be glad!*

—Jas. Whitecombe Riley.

“THE Poet with the smile in his heart” made it his mission to shed that smile all around and what more important mission is there to-day than that? A smile, a ray of sunshine in one’s heart, an hour of quiet, restful enjoyment enhanced by Heaven’s own gift—music—is worth more than gold to the heart burdened with anxious care.

“Empire”

Just be glad—that’s it—

“The Choir invisible”

The Cecilian Concertphone has an electric stop, Tone control, beautifully made, silent motors, artistic designs and casework of piano standard—in fact everything that pertains to a “well-bred” instrument.

Put a Cecilian Concertphone in your home—there is a wide range of models to choose from—the illustration is just one of five beautiful styles—select a range of records—it doesn’t matter which record you desire—The Concertphone plays any and every kind of disc record without any extra attachment—and there you have gladness, restfulness,—the soft glamour of “Home Sweet Home.”
