

was his life, should appear, then he should appear with him in glory."

Peacefully and tenderly, without any apparent struggle, his spirit passed away early in the morning of the 21st of March. God grant that you, dear reader, leading a life as pure and useful, may also enjoy an end like his!

