

Turn the hearts of those, who are deluded and deceived, and graciously spare, we beseech thee, the farther effusion of human blood. Having too long beheld the fatal effects of infidelity, may the people, at last, as one man, renounce those doctrines of sin, by which they are misled, and turn unto thee, the Lord, with purpose of heart.

F I N I S.