

THE OFFICIAL HISTORY OF THE CENTENNIAL EXHIBITION,

WITH A FULL DESCRIPTION OF THE
GREAT BUILDINGS AND ALL THE OBJECTS OF INTEREST IN THEM,

EMBELLISHED WITH OVER 300 FINE ENGRAVINGS.

This work gives a complete and vivid description of the great Exhibition. The Author has written from his own personal knowledge, having gone through every part of the great Fair, note book in hand, recording the vast and varied information contained in this book. He has received in his labors the constant and sympathetic assistance of the Centennial authorities, and has enjoyed peculiar advantages in the preparation of this work. It is the only Official History of the Centennial Exhibition offered to the public, and is invaluable to those who contemplate visiting the Exhibition. There is not a guide book in print which gives one tenth of the information contained in this work. To those who have visited the Exhibition, it will be a pleasing souvenir of their visit, and will enable them to recall the magnificent scenes they have witnessed. To those who cannot make the journey, the book is a necessity, for it will enable them to enjoy the delights of a thorough acquaintance with the great World's Fair in the quietude of their own homes.

THE WORK TREATS

OF THE EXHIBITION GROUNDS; giving an account of them, the manner in which they are laid off, and the location of every object of interest in them.

OF THE GREAT BUILDINGS OF THE EXHIBITION; giving their history, their size, the details of their construction, and an accurate description of each.

OF THE MAIN EXHIBITION BUILDING, that superb palace of glass and iron; of the rare and beautiful articles displayed within it; the rich Jewels, Lace, Silks, and manufactures of all kinds, which are here spread out in a manner that surpasses the wildest flights of romance; and the thousands of beautiful and curious objects which fill the vast hall.

OF MACHINERY HALL, the grand temple of the Mechanic Arts; of the great Corliss Engine, and the thousands of machines which exhibit the mechanical industries of the world.

OF MEMORIAL HALL, the beautiful Art Gallery, with its thousands of Paintings, Statues, Bronzes, etc.; the most superb Art Collection ever seen in any Exhibition.

OF AGRICULTURAL HALL, in which is made the most complete display of the agricultural systems of the various nations of the world. This is the grand original feature of our Exhibition, and is a source of the deepest interest to all who visit it. To the farmer, the account of the superb display in this building is worth the price of the whole book.

OF HORTICULTURAL HALL, the fairy-like palace in which the flowers of the world are to be seen; and of the beautiful landscape garden which surrounds it.

OF THE UNITED STATES GOVERNMENT BUILDING; in which are displayed the great National Museum and the practical workings of the Treasury, War, Navy, Interior and Post-Office Departments. The account of the collections contained within this building is brilliantly written, and is of the deepest interest to every citizen of the Union.

OF THE WOMAN'S PAVILION, with its beautiful collections of the work of woman in the various occupations in which her skill and patience have won her success. This department of the Exhibition cannot fail to interest the women of America.

OF THE BUILDINGS OF THE VARIOUS STATES OF THE UNION, the arrangements made for special displays, and for the comfort and convenience of the visitors from the various States; with a description of the buildings and their internal arrangements.

OF THE BUILDINGS OF FOREIGN COUNTRIES; giving interesting descriptions of the stately mansions of Great Britain, the handsome pavilions of Spain and Germany, the curious residence and bazaars of the Japanese, the Cafés of the Turks and Tunisians; the bazaars of the Syrians, and tents of Bedouin Arabs.
