M. O'MEARA,
PROPRIETOR.

'Tis almost second nature for an actor to relate stories, even of a funeral nature, in as entertaining a manner as possible.

Mr. Goodwin is accredited with talking about it the other day.

"For instance," said he, "what's the use of going into all the harrowing details. Leave something to the imagination. Now, take for example, suppose you read something like this in the paper:

"In Boston the other day, a man thought he could cross the track in advance of a locomotive. The services at the grave were very impressive." Or "A man in Maryland ate fifty raw oysters on a wager.

The silver trimmings on his coffin cost $12.50." Or "A Chicago man warned his wife not to light the fire with kerosene. She did not heed the warning. Her clothes fit his second wife admirably well." Or "A Londoner got tired of buying coal haphazard, because it was cheap, and now buys it from Cameron.

As a result the doctor never calls, and he and his family are happy all the time." 'Tis brief, but really admirable. Office, Hiscox Building; Yard, Burwell St., at G. T. R.
