

common people—to whom their circulation will probably be confined—than with a reference to the degree to which they exhibit the talents of their writer.

Special thanks are due to Mr. Williamson, for upwards of ten years the respected teacher of the Chatsworth Common School, for his assistance in rendering from short-hand Mr. McDowall's manuscripts.

J. C.

Chatsworth, March 1st 1866.