gregation was weakened by the loss of Barber, their fast outside wing, and Hueston, a weighty middle, while Ottawa, tho having played a heavy game on Saturday, showed to better advantage than against the Argonauts. For T.A.A.C. Degruchy, and, in fact, the whole back division, did splendidly, while the Burkhart Brothers on the line were effective. For Ottawa Johnston, Williams and Gerrard behind the line and Kilt on the front performed the service, and McCann, with a wonderful run from the T.A.A.C. 30-yard line in a chase, added 5 points, while Williams put over a neat drop kick for 3 more, having secured a former 5 on a fast follow to a fumble. A fitting souvenir of the game to Referee Mr. Billy McMaster would be a set of burglars, tools and a dark lantern.

The teams lined up as follows:
Ottawa (16): Full, Johnston; halves, Rennedy, Williams, Gerrard; quarter, O'Neil; scrimmage, McCuaig, Kilmartin and Barrymore; wings, Church, Phillips, Disney, Kuhn, Kilt and McCann.
T.A.A.C. (7): Full, Capreol; halves, Powell, Degruchy, Fleming; quarter, Cory; scrimmage, Drummond, Hoar and Holden; wings, Burton, Thompson, B. Burkhart, McKenzie, D. Burkhart and Harcourt.

The Argos had one chance to do something in the last quarter, as they were camping right on Tigers line. A long kick was sent over by Roy Im. A long kick was sent over by Roy Ecclestone, but Moore, dodging a dozen tackles, ran it out, passed to Isbister, who passed it to Barron, who was not grassed until he got to centrefield.
