SOLDIERS' POET IN TORONTO

Author of "Lady of the Snows" Comes Clad in Heavy Ulster, But Finds October Air
Not Severe.

By Captain Scott-Harden.

Three hours late the train bringing Rudyard Kipling, the soldiers' poet, and Mrs. Kipling to Toronto, arrived at the Union Station at 6:45 last night.

Mr. and Mrs. Kipling traveled from North Bay by the Grand Trunk line in a special Pullman coach supplied by the Canadian Pacific Railway. A representative of the Grand Trunk traveled in the coach. At North Park-dale, where the train stopped, Mr.
Corbett, representing the Canadian Pacific Railway, was introduced.

Mr. Kipling wore a heavy ulster and a black christy hat. Mrs. Kipling being dressed in a tailor made gown with a sable boa around her neck and wearing a toque.

Rudyard Kipling was sitting on a huge trunk with a label marked Capetown, and his wife held a small bag.

Kipling looked fit and well and bronzed from the sun and winds of the western prairies.

Rudyard, with his glasses over his grey eyes, was giving instructions to the porter about the luggage, which was heaped up in the saloon. He is thinner than one would expect from his pictures, about 5 feet 6 inches tall, with a heavy moustache, and Mrs. Kipling about 5 feet 3 inches with a slight figure. They are traveling without their children, the son having just gone to school in England. He is destined for a naval career and will ere long find his way to the naval college in the Isle of Wight, where Prince Edward of Wales is at present. The son is a very bright and very intelligent and small like his parents.

Charmed.
Mr. Kipling was delighted with his trip across the continent, and in raptures about Vancouver. He said the Hindus there all had work—he had interviewed them and found that one man, a mill owner, had secured 200 in one batch. There is plenty of work for them, and the reports about the riot there are exaggerated. He said he had a nice farm in England, and did not mind being away from home, altho he would like to come and live out here, and Mrs. Kipling is also interested in many schemes. Both are astounded at the hospital, and overwhelmed with invitations. Before he

CRIMINAL NEGLIGENCE CHARGED TO FOREMAN

Scaffold Erected Under Supervision of Wm. Cheshire Responsible for Death.

A summons returnable at the police court on Friday morning has been issued, charging William Cheshire, 191 Carlton-street, with criminal negligence in causing the death of James Rigby Sept. 30.

The action was taken following the verdict of a coroner's jury, which laid the death of the man on a scaffold erected at a house in course of construction in Admiral-crescent.

The evidence at the inquest went to show that the scaffold was erected under the personal supervision of Chesshire, who was employed as foreman of construction by Samuel R. Alexander, the contractor.

The evidence was and the information made out in the case charges that the scaffold was erected in an unsafe manner, and negligently constructed and that the material used was not of sufficient strength to bear the weight of workmen upon it. There was also evidence that Cheshire had been drinking, one witness swearing that he was intoxicated.

The summons was issued after a conference of the crown authorities and similar prosecutions have been rare in the city. The reason for its issuance is the appalling number of deaths occurring in the city during the present season thru insufficient protection to workmen on buildings.

Chief Coroner Arthur Jukes Johnson, who attended Rigby at the scene of accident, will be a witness at the trial, and those who gave evidence at the inquest will be called.

Another workman named Dawson was severely injured in the fall, the mon going together onto the scaffolding immediately upon its completion.
The fall was thirty feet.

Court of Revision Cleared Up Poll Three by Allowing One More Conservative Vote.

PRINCE ALBERT, Sask., Oct. 16.— The court of revision cleared up poll 3 this morning by allowing one more Conservative vote and disallowing the remaining challenged ballots, the voters not appearing to prove their qualifications.

The court is now sitting on three polls. To date eight votes supported by the Liberals and three supported by Bradshaw's representative have been allowed. Bradshaw still leads.

There She Was Waiting at the Station and He Took a Fit of Coughing.

NEW YORK, Oct. 16.—All the fash-ionables in Burlington, N.J., an old and aristocratic town, are laughing at the rencontre which a matronly widow, who lives on Federal-street there, forced upon herself.

The widow, altho well-known, is best described by this "personal," which she placed in a Philadelphia newspaper.

"A lady of mature age, but looking young and feeling so; a tall blonde, imposing and graceful, and at the same time well-to-do, desires to marry. Address, ..."

The lady, who is no older than she feels, chose her affinity from the writers of many letters she received.
Quickly an interview was arranged.
She, wearing a bunch of lilies-of-the-valley in her corsage, was to wait at the Pennsylvania Railroad station; he, with a red, red rose in his coat lapel, was to arrive on the 9:37 a.m. New York express, enshrouded, yesterday, in a car dropped her stalwart son.
The widow, looking extremely youthful and handsome, waited at the ch-f, the station; the express stopped; he, in a car dropped her stalwart son.
"Hello, mother," he cried, "what are you doing here?"

Next instant he saw the bunch of lilies-of-the-valley; she, the rose he wore. She blushed far redder than the rose and was seized with an op-erature fit of coughing, which could not hide her confusion, however.

"I-I got off to—to get a paper," stammered her son, who is about 23 years old, a gay young fellow, employed in Philadelphia.

He rushed to the news-stand, grabbed a paper, and scrambled aboard the last coach as the express pulled out. His mother tore the lilies from her corsage, threw them on the platform and ground them under her heel.
"I will die a widow," she has since said to intimate, "confidential" female friends.

PUBLIC OWNERSHIP AND TWO CENT A MILE RATE

Platform of New Conservative Association Organized in Northwest Section of City.

A meeting was held in Dovercourt Hall, Bloor and Dovercourt-road, last night to organize a Conservative association for that section of the city and county. It was decided to call the organization "The Northwest Toronto and York Liberal-Conservative Association," and the following officers were elected: President, Fred G. McBrien; vice-presidents, Dr. W. R. Cook, W. H.
Summerville, Thomas Conboy; secretary, R. J. Clarke, 970 Dovercourt-road; financial secretary, O. J. Green; treasurer, William C. McBrien; chairman of executive, H. E. Cardinal.

The new association adopted resolutions favoring public ownership of public utilities and the 2-cent-a-mile railway rate.

Nearly a hundred were present and signed the roll. It is expected that an organizer for the district will be appointed at the next meeting. The association is made up chiefly of young men of advanced ideas.

ner, who was arrested at Oakwood yesterday by Chief Vincent of Lindsay. He is charged with the theft of $30 for whom he was a traveler.

Price of Copper Cut in Two Means Saving of a Million In Government Power Line

An almost remarkable drop has occurred in the price of copper metal since the first of the year.

At New York yesterday the price of the metal was quoted at around 13 1/4 a pound. Early in the year copper was reported to have sold freely at 25 a pound and some sales were even made as high as 26 a pound.

The cause of the big decline in price is stated to be due to overproduction, and the production in the States is being largely curtailed.

A Toronto electrical expert, discussing the metal situation, remarked that the reduced price could not be more fortunate for Ontario, as at least $1-600,000 would be saved in constructing government power transmission lines now, as compared with what it would have cost at the high price of copper.

KING COMING FOR CENTENARY?

Earl Grey at U.C.C. Promises a Visit From Royalty on Occasion of Champlain Centenary.

Earl Grey was kept busy yesterday.
In the morning he visited Upper Canada College and delivered an address to the boys. He revealed the secret that distinguished members of the royal family will visit Canada in connection with the centenary of the landing of Champlain.

Whether it will be Their Majesties the King and Queen or the Prince and Princess of Wales he did not disclose, but the impression created on the minds of those who were privileged to hear the remarks is that it will be Their Majesties.

Leaving the college, his excellency proceeded to St. Andrew's College, where he was given a surprise. The cadet corps was lined up as a guard of honor and received him with the royal salute.
His excellency inspected the corps and expressed himself delighted with their smart appearance and soldierly bearing.

On entering the assembly hall he was received with ringing cheers. President J. K. Macdonald, Col. Gooderham, Prof. Kilpatrick, Rev. Dr. Neil, Dr.
Hamilton and A. M. Campbell, directors of the college, and Principal D. Bruce Macdonald awaited him. He repeated the good advice given the boys at U.
C.C., and presided at the president's medals for the highest standing in mat-riculation at Toronto University, for the years 1906-07. The former was won by Maurice McPhedran and the latter went to Clinton Fletcher. Both boys won double scholarships.

At both colleges his excellency spoke of the great possibilities before the boys in the part they would be called upon to play in the future of the country.
He urged strongly the development of the imperial spirit, which recognizes duty to the empire as well as to their own country.

Canada had a great destiny assured her. She was a most important unit of the empire and that importance would increase as time rolled on. They all had a chance to share the magnificent glories that awaited Canada's sons, and it may be that amongst their number to-day a bright star, the future prime minister of the empire.

The noble earl asked the headmasters of both colleges to give the boys a holiday in honor of his visit, which was granted.

At noon the lieutenant-governor, Sir William Mortimer Clark, entertained his excellency at luncheon, when he met Premier Whitney and a few other invited guests.

He spent the afternoon on the golf links, dined at the Toronto Club in the evening, and left for Ottawa at 10 o'clock last night, joining the train at the Don Station.

PHOTOGRAPHER TRIED TO SNAP CHADWICK FUNERAL

Was Ousted From Adjacent Factory in Effort to Secure Picture for Newspaper.

WOODSTOCK, Oct. 16.—(Special).— The curtain for the last act of a romantic and adventurous career was rung down this afternoon when, surrounded by weeping relatives, the mortal remains of Mrs. Cassie Chadwick were lowered to their last resting place beside those of her father and mother in the Anglican Cemetery.

The funeral, held from the residence of Mrs. D. A. Campbell, Mrs. Chad-wick's sister, was strictly private.
News of the funeral was not allowed on the premises. None were allowed to view the remains. An enterprising local photographer who had been assigned by a newspaper to take pictures of the funeral, secured a window in a factory just opposite Mrs.
Campbell's residence, with the intention of photographing the coffin as it was carried out to the hearse. Mayor Butler and Reeve Thompson prevailed upon the owner of the factory to have the man ousted.

The ardent photographer was compelli-ed to retreat. Thruout the services, both at the house and grave, a sharp lookout was kept for cameras, and it is safe to say that not two pictures were taken of the entire proceedings.

The floral tributes were magnificent.
The relatives of the deceased present were Emil Hoover, son; Dan Bigley, brother, and Mrs. McDonald, sister, all of Cleveland.

The pall-bearers were: Mayor John Butler, R. E. Butler, Jr. J. Welford, Dr. Odium, J. G. Earn and T. L. Kent, all prominent citizens of Woodstock.

Heavy Declines in Tractions Held by Canadian Investors

How Speculators Have Been Hit in Falling Market—$300,000,000 in Foreign Railway Stocks and Bonds Taken up in the Past Ten Years in This Country.

Upwards of $300,000,000 worth of foreign tractions and power company bonds and stocks have been put on the Canadian markets within the last ten years.

Most of the common stock of these concerns was what is termed bonus stock, against which no money was paid into the companies' treasuries as capital.

When money was plentiful, these issues were taken as collateral by the loaning institutions with comparative freedom, but, with the present stringency, it is difficult to carry them on margin. It was announced yesterday that the New York banks have refused to loan on Detroit United Railway.

Heavy declines have occurred in all of this class of securities within the last year, as will be seen by the appended table, which contains most of these issues dealt in by Canadian investors and speculators.

	High 1906.	To-Day's Price.
Sao Paulo	146	101 1/2
Detroit United	102	36
Northern Ohio	33 3/4	20
Rio	48	32
Toronto Railway	125 1/4	95
Toledo Railway	36 1/4	12
Tri-City	94 1/2	...
Twin City	122 1/4	86
Winnipeg Railway	190	130
Illinois Traction	101 1/2	75
Montreal Street Railway	284	177
Mexican L. & P.	70	41

The Detroit Free Press yesterday printed the following table, showing the shrinkage in Detroit United stock since 1901:

1901 $12,500,000 stock, par $100, at $82 a share, ..	$10,250,000
1902 $12,500,000 stock, par $100, at $97 a share, ..	12,125,000
1906 $12,500,000 stock, par $100, at $102 a share, ..	12,750,000
1907 $12,500,000 stock, par $100, at $33 a share, ..	4,125,000

On Wall-street at 33, loss from high point $8,625,000 At Montreal at 28, loss from high point $9,250,000 Or a shrinkage from high point of $69 a share on Wall-street and of $74 a share at Montreal.

SOUL-MATES ARE INSANE AFFINITIES DISCHARGED

Preacher and Wife of Electropyer Offended Public Decency—Relatives Take Charge of Both.

NEW YORK, Oct. 16.—King's County Hospital physicians having declared both Rev. Maxwell Walton, pastor of St. Lucas German Evangelical Lutheran Church of Williamsburg, and Mrs.
Dorah Bauer, his affinity, insane, the couple were discharged in police court to-day.

Mrs. Bauer, who is the wife of Louis A. Bauer, an electropyer, and the minister were arrested a few days ago, charged with offending public decency and were committed to have their sanguinity inquired into, as they had declared themselves to be "soul-mates." Telegrams took them in charge on their release.

EVERETT MAKES AN EXPLANATION

Bonds Were Not Saleable, He Says, Except at Ruinous Rate of Interest.

CLEVELAND, O., Oct. 16.—(Special).
—Henry A. Everett, chairman of the board of the Detroit United Railway Company, to-day made a detailed statement of the reasons leading to the action of the directors in passing the dividend upon the stock.

"The directors faced the alternative of taking the dividend off, or adding to the floating indebtedness," he said.
"The company has been forced to spend over $800,000 in new equipment this year, including power-house equipment, cars and new track construction required by the city. We had to meet these payments, and it was deemed better to do so than to add to the indebtedness or to fund it now by selling bonds at a price which would mean a ruinous rate of interest upon the proceeds."

"The company has about $4,000,000 of bonds in the treasury, but there has been no market for them, nor for any other bonds. It also has $2,000,000 of short-term notes due two years from January. Dividends will be resumed if the improvement which are taking the money earned for dividends.

"We have followed the policy of giving a high dividend service, believing this will of the people, and in this way obtaining the extension of franchises as they expire. We have each year put more into the property than we have taken out."

"While some of our franchisees expire in two years, there are others which run for 17 years. Moreover, a large proportion of the company's 700 miles of tracks has perpetual franchises. With there is less than $20,000 of stock against each mile. The stock is worth intrinsically more now than ever before."

LIBERALS DON'T WANT LONDON SEAT

Will Help Elect Major
Beattie to Kill Labor Movement and Have Election Case Indictments Nulled.

LONDON, Oct. 16.—(Special).—Many rumors are flying about concerning the way that William Gray was turned down by the Conservative convention last night.

The Free Press, in its report of the convention, says it was stated that Mr. Gray had made certain pledges not to run again. Nevertheless, his friends insisted upon putting him in nomination, and it was suggested that he could be cabled in case he was the choice of the convention, and given the opportunity to accept or decline.

Mr. Gray made the fight against Hon. Charles Hyman in 1905, and of the R. L. Borden meeting here a month ago Hon. Adam Beck declared that William Gray was the rightful member of parliament for the City of London.

Mr. Gray is at present in Europe, but it transpires that he expected to receive the nomination and left certain instructions with Mr. Beattie, a barrister of this city, whose uncle, by the way, received the nomination. Mr.
Beattie, the barrister, is said to have informed the convention that Mr. Gray would not accept the nomination unless the party leaders raised a campaign fund of at least $6000. This demand rather staggered the convention and led to Mr. Gray's defeat.

Did Not Want It.
Others well informed declare that Mr. Gray did not want the nomination, and that his business engagements are such that he could not take the time to serve in parliament. It is said in this connection, that he preferred to have Hon. Adam Beck go to Ottawa, so as to enable him (Gray) to run for the legislature.

Prior to the convention, there had been considerable "dickering" between the two parties, and the Liberals wanted to agree with the Conservatives upon a common candidate, A. M. Smith, a prominent citizen, and a member of the Conservative party, was mentioned as satisfactory to both sides, but for some reason this deal fell thru. It is asserted, however, by Liberal workers, that a deal was made between the parties on both sides, by which the Liberals are to make no nomination and the Conservatives, as part of the deal, agree to have the attorney general dismiss the pending criminal cases against the Liberal workers here for complicity in the election frauds at London in 1905.

The Liberal party has a candidate in the field, but is not using any money, and has not yet perfected its organization. They expect to have a number of mass meetings and get out a large Labor vote, which will be drawn from both parties. In the meantime they have not been watching the registration, and the registration so far has been very light.

To Support Mayor.
It is claimed, however, that the Liberals will not support the Labor candidate, but that the whole machinery of the party will be used to help elect Mayor Beattie. Two reasons are given for this.

(1) That the politicians on both sides are conspiring to discourage any third party movement by the Labor men.
(2) That under the terms of the deal between the parties the Liberals are to openly support the Conservative candidate as the consideration for having the indictments nulled in the London election case.

But little interest is manifested in the election. One prominent citizen stated to-day "there was much more interest in the Chicago-Detroit baseball games than there is in this election." Another one stated "there is no money going about here, and therefore you cannot expect anybody to vote."

The upshot seems to be that Mr.
Gray is not to have the seat to which he was rightfully elected, and that the men who stole the seat from him are not to be punished.
