At the Criminal Assizes.

Very little progress was made at the Criminal Assizes yesterday. James Matheson was placed on trial after the grand jury had returned a true bill against him for assault, with a view to rape, on Frances Hunt, a girl of 18, residing with her uncle at 831 Queen-street west. All the parties to the trial are colored persons. The accused was defended by Mr. Robinette, and after a short trial he was acquitted.

An investigation of the strange death of the Bishop of Killaloe and his wife shows that the prelate tecently left Killaloe for his home in Dublin, on account of his wife's health, and had left the house to fetch a doctor for her, at about 5.30 a.m., when he fell dead near his residence. His wife, it seems, must have died soon after the Bishop left the house.
