FIGHTING FOR THE PATIENT.

Dr. Stacey Explains the Attitude of the Doctors.

"It was hardly fair on the part of some of the aldermen to ascribe to the outside practitioners selfish motives in attend our own patients in the hospital," said Dr. Stacey last night. There are lots of patients who should go to the hospital but who will not do so when they know they cannot be attended to by their own doctor. The physician wants them to go because, in many cases, the sanitary conditions are bad, the room illy ventilated, the patient receives poor nursing and badly prepared food. Everything is against them. This is especially so in typand and pneumonia cases, and many deaths are due to the imperfect attention.
