WHO MARRIED YOU?

Wedding Performed by U. S. Clergy-men in Canada Not Legal.

Brockville, Dec. 17.—As the question of the legality of a marriage ceremony performed by a foreign minister has been the source of considerable discussion, pro and con, during the past six months, the division registrar for the town of Brockville laid the matter before the registrar-general of Ontario, who referred the question to the department of the attorney-general.

The opinion given is "that a marriage ceremony performed in Canada by a minister resident in the United States is not legal." Two cases have come to light during the past year, which, in view of the foregoing opinion, are decidedly illegal marriages.

A LOCAL BUDGET

—The Bishop of Huron will preach at St. George's Church, West London, on Sunday evening.

—Mrs. A. E. Cooper, who has been spending the past six months in Muskoka, has returned home, considerably improved in health.

—Mr. E. F. Kohl, of Brockville, formerly of St. Thomas, leaves today for Winnipeg to assume the management of the Molsons Bank in that city.

—Rev. J. W. Pedley will take as his subject tomorrow evening "Jesus Regarding the Future," being the fifth in the series of Sunday evening sermons.

—"The Most Dangerous Way" will be Rev. Thomas Wilson's subject, following his course to young people, in King Street Presbyterian Church tomorrow evening.

—Mr. W. Graham Hodsdon, the celebrated tenor singer, of Toronto, will take part in the musical service at Knox Presbyterian Church, South London, tomorrow.

—Oak Hall, London, has issued a calendar for 1929, and will send or give one to every person in Middlesex county who cuts out the advertisement on another page of this issue and fills in their name and address.

—Judging from the number of tickets sold for the lecture on "Ireland and the Irish," a large audience is assured for Monday evening in King Street Presbyterian Church. This lecture never fails to fill the house. A good Irish programme is provided.

—At the Auditorium on Monday evening next Miss Ethel Webb will recite the "Parting of Arthur and Guinevere" (Tennyson); also "A Great Grandmother's Story," of Toronto.

—Elizabeth McIntyre, of Toronto, Hodsdon will give the "Death of Nelson" and the "Hungarian Love Song." A few choice reserved seats can yet be secured at the Auditorium.

—In the county court yesterday afternoon only one non-jury case was disposed of—John Moffatt, of Bidulph, vs. Elizabeth McIntyre, of Toronto.

This was an action for damages for breach of covenant for quiet enjoyment of certain lands. The defendant's claim was that plaintiff had abandoned the place and that claim had been forfeited. Defendant also claimed $200 arrears for rent. On the judge's advice a settlement was effected by which the plaintiff secured $75, and defendant abandoned counter-claim. Jarvis & Vining for plaintiff; Thorne, Warner & Starr, Toronto, for defendant.

WILL CALL A LONDON PASTOR.

Guelph Herald: A meeting of the congregation of St. Andrew's Church was called by the moderator, Rev. David Strachan, Wednesday night, to find the position of the members and adherents in the matter of filling the pulpit left vacant by the death of Rev. J. C. Smith. There was but one name mentioned, that of Rev. A. J. McGillivray, pastor of St. James' Presbyterian Church, London, who filled the pulpit so ably for a short time last winter. The call was signed by nearly everyone present, and it will be presented at a special meeting of the Guelph Presbytery, to be held at an early date. Should Mr. McGillivray decide to return to Guelph, he will be warmly received, not only by the entire

ST. GEORGE'S KINDERGARTEN.

That was a delightful entertainment provided by the little folk of St. George's Kindergarten for parents and friends yesterday afternoon, and many words of praise and commendation were bestowed on the teachers—Misses Boyd, Wrighton and Laidlaw—for their tactful and pleasant efforts to entertain and instruct the children. A beautiful Christmas tree was laden with many pretty articles of kindergarten construction and distributed by the infantile artists to their grown-up friends. The regular day's work, exercises and songs were gone through, much to the instruction and pleasure of the visitors.

CHRISTMAS CHEER

Meeting of the I. B. S.—The Distribution Committee—"Nothing's Too Good for the Irish."

A meeting of the Irish Benevolent Society was held last evening, President T. W. Scandrett in the chair, and B. C. McCann acting as secretary. The report of the picnic committee was received. President Scandrett, in thanking the members for looking after the affairs of the society, said he was glad to know that the society had the picnic of the season, and providing for the comfort and pleasure of the people, yet a handsome surplus was left to make provision for the Christmas cheer.

A committee consisting of Messrs. T. H. Smallman, J. McDonald, Mayor Wilson, J. W. Pocock, Ald. McPhillips, John Forrestal, Thomas Beattie, Ald. O'Meara, P. Mulken, Stephen Grant, M. F. O'Mara, J. L. Fitzgerald, W. B. Phipp, W. P. Regan, President Scandrett and the secretary, will make all arrangements for the annual distribution. A portion of the committee will attend on Wednesday to give out tickets for the distribution on Friday. Advertisements will be inserted in the city papers giving particulars. Great care will be taken to give tickets to the deserving poor only, as the committee feel that it is an injustice to the poor to give to those that are not in need of it. The secretary will receive communication from members of any charitable society giving names of persons in need of relief, and send tickets.

HOW TO AVOID A PRACTICAL JOKER

Welcome, Winter, merriest of all the seasons, in spite of thy hoary head and frosted beard! A thousand joys are in thy train. A jovial, mirth-loving merry-maker thou! It must be because Christmas, the brightest jewel of the year, is in thy crown. But thou art a jolly old chap, and a rough, practical joker, needing to be handled with gloves from Spittal, Sabine & Co.'s big fur store at 146 Dundas street. Indeed, but for those good furs, thou wouldst handle our bodies rather roughly in thy sport. But, costly ensconced in furs, one laughs at and with Jack Frost, the mischievous sprite. There is nothing so becoming as furs to set off sparkling eyes and glowing cheeks. Everybody knows they are the most comfortable and the most stylish garments for winter wear, and everybody should know that one of the hand-somest stocks of furs in Western Ontario is to be found at Spittal, Sabine & Co.'s store. There is a wonderful variety of gauntlets, caps, capelines, ruffs, capes and jackets, in seal, sable, otter, Persian lamb, mink and other furs. There are gray lamb and opossum storm collars, fur-lined cloth circulars, black lamb and sable capelines and muffs, and children's white robes. Spittal, Sabine & Co. are the sole Canadian agents for the celebrated mountain and grizzly bear robes, of which they carry a splendid stock. They also offer rare bargains in gentlemen's gloves and umbrellas. Now that the generous Christmas spirit has relaxed the heart-strings and the purse-strings, remember that the most appropriate gifts for the season, the gifts that will make glad the hearts of the recipients, are to be found in Spittal, Sabine & Co.'s store. To make your Christmas purchases without first giving them a try would be the grossest folly. Remember the name and the place—Spittal, Sabine & Co., 146 Dundas street.

Any store can sell candy; but Barkwell, the druggist, gives away one pound of Pure Chocolate Creams to every purchaser, whether drugs, perfumes or Christmas presents. Go to Barkwell's.

OREGON CLUB'S CARNIVAL

A Big Success—Unique and Pretty Costumes.

Fortunate Winners of the Prizes, and Names of Those in Costume.

About 800 merry-makers attended the carnival of the Oregon Club at the Jubilee Rink last night, and made it one of the most successful carnivals ever held in this city. The ice was in excellent condition, while the costumes were unique and handsome. The queen and the tramp were in prominence, and were seen arm in arm whirling around the rink. The scene was a pretty one, with so many enjoying the exhilarating exercise with the ruddy glow of health upon their cheeks. It was enhanced by pretty decorations in all parts of the building. The prizes were handsome, and cost $40.

The judging was done by Messrs. T. H. Drouney, ex-Ald. Fitzgerald and Ald. Wilkey, and the awarding of the handsome prizes gave general satisfaction. Following are the names of the winners:

Ladies—1, Mrs. Brierly; 2, Miss Pierce; 3, Miss Case; 4, Miss Finch; 5, Miss Grimeshaw; 6, Miss Lambert.

Gentlemen—1, C. Johns; 2, Mr. Cole;

3, Mr. Wedmore; 4, Mr. Nelson; 5, R. Brown.

Following is the list of those in costume, and their make-ups:
Ladies—Maggie Smith, Flower Girl; May Tukes, Flower Girl; Miss Grimshaw, Red Cross Nurse; Mrs. Brierly, Chariot Queen; May Deeley, Quaker; Alice Deeley, Quaker; Miss Case, Morning Star; Miss Warren Gipsy; Miss F. Chambers, Flower Girl; Miss Lambert, Red Cross Nurse.
Gentlemen—Thomas Oden, Peg-Leg; C. Johns, Gentleman of the 16th Century; George Heaman, Colored Gent; J. McNeil, Colored Gent; W. Westman, Olden Times; J. Jeffrey, Clown; J. Harris, Cowboy; Thomas Masson, John Plant, Mephisto; H. Harding, Valet; Suhr, Barber Pole; J. Savage, Boy Tramp; C. Nelson, Swell Irishman; Pailley, Negro; McConnel, and J. Brown, Knights of Robin Hood; Chas. Wattling, Satan; Shorty Barnett, Stranger in London; Frank Kernell, Colored Lady; Art. Stanfield, Colored Dude; Jack Wilkey, English Gentleman; Jack Hammett, Knight; Yellin Hood, Bert Fish; Wilkie Jockey; Charles Abbott, Silver King; Fred Deeley, Sailor; E. Howell and F. Corey, Colored Couple; Roy Cox and Bert Cole, Minstrels; H. Stapleton, Oregon Captain.

The officers of the club are: President, H. Drouney; ex-Ald. Fitzgerald and Ald. Wilkey; and the awarding of the handsome prizes gave general satisfaction. Following are the names of the winners:

Ladies—1, Mrs. Brierly; 2, Miss Pierce; 3, Miss Case; 4, Miss Finch; 5, Miss Grimeshaw; 6, Miss Lambert.

Gentlemen—1, C. Johns; 2, Mr. Cole;
