PLAYS, PICTURES AND MUSIC

ANNA HELD.

Beginning tonight local theatregoers vill have the pleasure of seeing Anna company for the first time since she last appeared here in "Miss Innocence." In her present starring vehicle which is called "Follow Me," Miss Held has a role that fits her as neatly as do her Lucille gowns which she displays thruout the performance. A piquant story is told by the autbors of "Follow Me." which concerns pursuit of the star of the Theatre Varieties, Claire La Tour, by the infatuated Marquis de Lunay. company for the first time since she

"A LITTLE BIT OF FLUFF."

Tho but fifteen months old, "A lattle Bit of Fluff," the big English comedy success, which will be presented by Albert Brewn, the brilliant comedian, and his own company, at the Grand Opera House this week, has enjoyed upwards of 600 performances at the Criterion Theatre, London. It is correctly described as a sure-fire farce, filled with clever and happy ideas. The British producers, Messrs. Herbert Jay and Anthony Ellis, are confident that in Mr. Brewn they have found the one actor on this continent capable of doing justice to the humors of the piece, and have sent from London a production that in scenery and furnishings is an exact replica of that to be seen at the Criterion Theatre.

AT THE HIPPODROME.

In "The Railroad Hotel," William A. Hanlon, the greatest of the famous family of clowns, offers his newest comedy creation as the headline attraction this week; Dorothy Dalton, Triangle star, will be featured in "The Dark Road;" the Four Frolickers offer a high-class singing act; Savannah and Georgia, singing comedians; Dora Hilton; "Chuck" Haas, the Oklahoma cowboy; Finley, Burton and Hill and the Keystone film comedies complete an excellent bill.

AT SHEA'S THIS WEEK. Eddie Foy and the Seven Younger Foys will headline the bill at Shea's this week in their new comedy offering, "The Old Woman in the Shoe." Percy Haswell, Toronto's favorite actures will be featured in the pew com-

Duster.

Officials for the meeting, which runs May 12 to 19, are announced in the condition book, and are the same as last year's. Grant Hugh Browne is president: T. J. Duggan, secretary and treasurer M. Nathanson, presiding steward and racing secretary; Frank Sullivan, manager; W. J. Morrison, associate steward; Sheridan Clarke, presiding judge, and E. Tribe, starter. lot, and the display of a variety of costumes worn by them is gorgeous.

For Washing Dainty Fabrics.

UX is a unique preparation made in L the form of flakes or wafers, which excels in the washing of flannels, woollens and all loosely woven and dainty fabrics which are liable to shrink if washed by ordinary methods.

It is a pleasure to wash such things with LUX. It yields a beautiful cream-like lather. It is more than pleasure to view or to wear the fabrics washed with it. They are a delight.
