Winning Wentworth Handicap, Feature of Friday at Hamilton
—Up to Closing Day.

Special to The Toronto World.
HAMILTON, June 30.—The Newbury Hunt Cup, Handicap of $500, second horse to receive $500, and third $250, was run off today at Newbury, over a course of one mile. Thirty-three entries were received for this big handicap, but only thirteen horses faced the starter.

S. Farquharson's Mount William with Whalley in the saddle, was first past the post, two lengths ahead of W. Singer's Sir Eager, ridden by Fox. Lord Car-narvon's Volta, who started favorite, was third, a short neck behind.

The betting was: Mount William, 20 to 1; Sir Eager, 6 to 1, and Volta, 4 to 1.
The Newbury Summer Cup
Handicap of $250 will be the feature of the closing of the meet.

The feature race was the six furlong Wentworth Cup, for three-year-olds and up. A. N. Akin and Water Lady were most sought after by the public, and then Squealer. The five-year-old, in the colors of his new owner, G. Bodwell, who has taken over the McBride stable, ner Akin, that was second the entire journey. Water Lady, alone, third.

E. Sengraam's Gully, who started from the barrier and held Tenthara safe in the first race, that was between these two and the best of the field, ran was away back, third, the rest strung out.

Brandywine had to be best to win the second. Breaking slowly, he overcame the field one by one, and won going away. Perpetual best Ethan Allen, the pacemaker, for the place, the rest nowhere.

Sea Beach repeated today, this time played as the favorite. Off in front, he just stayed there in the greatest finish of the day, with Copper King and Baby Cal, the three noses apart, and only a neck ahead of Handful.

Aprilia was off backwardly in the distance race for aged horses, and could never get up. Obolus, a good thing, took the lead at the start and increased it to half a dozen lengths where they cash.
Harry Lauder came strong for the place, and Goldy saved the show from Aprilia.

Pas de Chance proved his name a misnomer in the sixth, for the Ormondale colt worked that the field and best Bright Sands, a real hot thing, by less than a length. Olyn G. six lengths ahead of the strongly-played Sea Gull.

The closing event, on the turf, was easy for the strongly-played colt. Ask Me, that won by a sound stretch, run.

and a batting rally by Williams' team evened up the score in the fourth innings. The final score was 12-11 in favor of Wells team, a smart catch by R. Ibbotson kept the first cutting off any chance Williams
