PROPERTY INVESTMENTS THAT WILL RETURN BIG MONEY N O city in Canada offers better investment opportunities in land and house properties than the city of Toronto, and in no part of Toronto will bigger money be returned on investments than in that new and fast-developing section-Danforth district. Twelve years ago Danforth avenue was a mere roadway across vacant fields; today it is one of the main business arteries of the city. This extraordinary expansion has but followed a still more wonderful development of the residential section. It is no idle prophesy to say that in a few years Toronto is destined to have a population of a million people. The city's growth is north and east, but more particularly in the Danforth district. It is therefore only reasonable to anticipate the splendid investments that will follow development in this new section. Homeseekers will find many attractive features in this new residential district and builders can proceed with every confidence and assurance. Several of the splendid sub-divisions already opened up have sewers, water, gas and sidewalks.
