CHAMBERS'S PEOPLE'S EDITIONS.

Anxious to promote a taste for an improving kind of reading among the less opulent classes of the community, Messrs.
Chambers have for several years been engaged in publishing, from time to time, a series of reprints of approved works in all departments of literature; and in such a form (royal octavo) as to combine extreme cheapness with good appearance, readable-ness, and durability. The books have been, and continue to be, selected with a regard to the amusement, instruction, and moral improvement of the people. The series also includes Original Works of an entertaining and instructive character, and Trans- lations of the most approved productions of foreign writers.
