A QUESTION ABOUT MILK AND CREAM

A citizen interested in ice cream production and sale tells The Times that more milk and cream is coming into the city today than the dealers can handle, and he suggests that the mayor and Housewives' League get the facts before they attempt to place an embargo on ice cream.

To jump on the ice cream industry, he says, would give the ordinary citizen cheaper milk or cream or any more of it as the supply today is unlimited. The Times suggests that his statement is worth consideration and investigation.

St. John Woman And Children Suffocated In South Framingham Home

Mr. and Mrs. John Murphy of George Street Receive Terrible News Closely Following on Word of Another Fatality a Few Days Ago

To a home already saddened by the uncertainty regarding the fate of a gallant soldier and more recently by the news of the drowning of a young relative, comes news today of a more awful tragedy by which almost an entire branch of their family is wiped out.

Mr. and Mrs. John Murphy of 39 George street, have received the news that their daughter, Laura, and two of her children were found dead from suffocation by gas and, while the letter is not clear on the subject, it is feared that two other children met a similar fate at the same time.

The daughter was Mrs. Laura Blizard, aged twenty-four years, of South Framingham, Mass., and the children who are mentioned as having met death with her are Teresa, aged eight years, and Bobbie, aged three. It is feared that her twin boys, Eddie and William, six years old, may have met the same fate as the only survivors definitely mentioned are a week-old infant, who still is in a precarious condition, and the father, On Friday evening last, when Mr. Blizard returned to his home, he found his wife, apparently lifeless, on the floor and the children in similar condition in bed. He carried them out and had them taken to the hospital, but efforts to revive them proved fruitless, the only one mentioned as responding to the treatment being the infant of a week.

The little one had been found with its face deep in the bed clothes.

The details contained in the letter are missing by four sisters, Mrs. Josephine Novack of Cambridge, Mass., from whom the news was received; Mrs. Rosalie Nairn and Miss May, both at home, and Mrs. Nellie Irvine of Cambridge.

In addition to her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Murphy, Mrs. Blizard is survived by four sisters, Mrs. Josephine Novack of Cambridge, Mass., from whom the news was received; Mrs. Rosalie Nairn and Miss May, both at home, and Mrs. Nellie Irvine of Cambridge.

Only a few days ago, the Times announced the death of Mrs. Irvine's daughter, Teresa, who was drowned in the Charles river, which runs near their home, and Mrs. Irvine, already suffering from the shock of her daughter's death, has been prostrated by the additional tragedy.

The husband of Mrs. Nairn, another sister, was a member of the Canadian Expeditionary force, but he has been missing for some time and it is feared that he has been killed in action.

Mr. Blizard, who lost his wife and children in this recent tragedy, had been listed for overseas service with the United States forces.

DEATH OF SOLDIER'S CHILD

There will be many to sympathize with the bereaved parents of a child in the death of their young daughter, Eleanor Maud, which occurred last night at her home, 100 St. John street. Mr. Ford is in khaki and overseas and recently was wounded. He is at present recovering in an English hospital.

CANADIAN PACIFIC TRAIN SERVICE

Effective Monday, Sept. 17, double service on St. Andrews subdivision will be discontinued. On and after that date there will be one train in and out of St. Andrews, daily except Sunday, arriving at St. Andrews 11:55 a.m. (Atlantic) and leaving at 6:00 p.m. (Atlantic).

MCCOLGAN-RICKER

The wedding of Herbert McColgan and Miss Minnie Ricker, both of this city, was solemnized this morning at the home of the officiating clergyman, Rev. D. J. MacPherson, 165 Leinster street. The bride was gowned in a cream tulle and wore a matching hat. She was attended by her sister, Miss Leota Ricker. Mr. and Mrs. McColgan will make their home at 41 D'Arshart street.

THE SCHOOLS.

The total number of permits issued from the school trustees' office is 1090, comparing with a total of 1108 for all last year. This would seem to show that there will be a large increase in the number of new pupils this year. No permits for pupils entering the primary grades who have not been after the 29th inst.

MRS. LOUIS MASSIE

Many will learn with regret of the death of Mrs. Massie, wife of Louis Massie, of 226 Brussels street. Besides her husband, she is survived by two small sons, four brothers, Thomas, William, James and George Hunt, all of Campbellton, and four sisters, Mrs. W. M. Ingram of this city, and Miss Irene Coffin, also of St. John; Mrs. Barton and Miss C. Coffin, of Campbellton. The funeral will take place on Saturday morning.

AT THE Y. M. C. A.

Preparations for one of the most successful years in the history of the Y. M. C. A. are being made at the association building. At a meeting of the directors matters relative to improvements in the building will be taken up and the chairman of the committees will be appointed. The programme for the year will be discussed and outlined. A report on the new heating apparatus which has already been ordered and is on the way here. It is the most up-to-date heating system obtainable. In the big storage tanks for hot water there will be three times the amount of hot water available than under the old system. This will easily supply the demands of the members and any outside demands that may be made on the association such as by men of visiting battalions. Last year as many as 500 of these men were accommodated in a single day.

NO COUNCIL MEETING

The mayor and Commissioners Russell and Fisher were on hand this morning but, as this did not constitute a quorum, the committee meeting of the common council was not held.

WAS B'OWN TO PIECES BY SHELL ON WESTERN FRONT ON EVENING OF APRIL 26

Mrs. A. Mahoney of 108 Gilbert's lane, has received a letter from the director of the Ottawa, giving a detailed report of the circumstances surrounding the death of her husband, Private Michael Mahoney, a member of the 36th Battalion, who gave his life in France on April 26, 1917. The letter reads as follows:

"Michael Mahoney was blown to pieces and buried in a funk-hole which he was occupying at Mont Forest Quarries on the evening of April 26. His death was caused by a direct hit by a 5.9 German shell with which the place was heavily bombarded. A grave was raised on the spot and the location registered."

Pte. Mahoney had played well a soldier's part and his memory will be honored. Two of his nephews, the Gaynes boys—also gave their lives in the war.

HOW-CLARKE WEDDING OF INTEREST IN ST. JOHN

St. Paul's church, Northport, N. S., was the scene of a pretty wedding on September 6, when Jean MacDougald, daughter of Rev. D. McD., and Walter Clarke, was united in marriage to Walter Alexander Gow of Bridgewater, N. S. The church was tastefully decorated with ferns, golden glow and potted plants.

The bride looked charming in a dress of white crepe-de-chine with veil and orange blossoms. She entered the church to the strains of Lohengrin's bridal chorus, accompanied by her mother and carrying a shower bouquet of white roses and sweet peas. The bride and groom stood under a pretty arch of evergreen and sweet peas.

Rev. D. McD. Clarke, father of the bride, performed the ceremony. The "Voice That Breathed O'er Eden" was sung by A. Cuyler Clarke, brother of the bride. Miss Agnes Clarke, sister of the bride, played the wedding march. After the ceremony a dainty luncheon was served at the home of the bride's parents. Mr. and Mrs. Gow then motored to Amherst, where they were to leave on the evening train for Quebec, Montreal, Toronto, Niagara, New York, Boston and other American cities.

The presents were numerous and valuable, testifying to the popularity of the bride. Among them was a substantial check from the firm of Dawson & Gow, of which the groom is a popular and valued member. The groom's gift to the bride was a Heintzman piano, and to the organist a necklace set with pearls.

Among the guests were Dr. and Mrs. E. P. Atkinson, Northport; A. C. Clarke, Channel, Nfld.; W. B. Freeman, Bridgewater; Miss Emily Clarke, Digby; Mr. and Mrs. L. Ellis and Mrs. W. H. Semple, Truro; Mr. and Mrs. A. Hatfield and Miss Ruth Hatfield, Port Greville; Mr. and Mrs. G. Hatfield, Digby River; Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Semple, Havelock; and Miss Edna MacLeod, New Haven, C.B.

After an extended honeymoon trip, Mr. and Mrs. Gow will reside in Bridgewater. The bride, whose family formerly resided in Chipman, N. B., has many friends in St. John from whom she will have best wishes.
