The ceremony was performed by Rev. A. V. McLaren, of Upham, assisted by Rev. A. F. Dickenson, of St. Martin's.

CELEBRATED HER ONE HUNDREDTH BIRTHDAY

On Thursday, September 29, an interesting event took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. S. M. Crawford, Lakeside, when about fifty friends of Mrs. Mary M. Bull assembled to congratulate her on her one hundredth birthday. Mrs. Bull is the widow of James Bull, of French Village, who died in 1885, and the daughter of Isaac and Katherine Ralston, of New Brunswick. She was born in Hampton in the reign of George IV, 1821, and has lived under the rule of five sovereigns, and has always been a resident of New Brunswick. She has always been a faithful helper in the church and a kind friend to everyone who knew her. On the afternoon of her birthday, being St. Michaelmas Day, the Rev. C. Gordon Lawrence administered the Holy Sacrament to her, with full communion service, using the fair linen cloth he used in France during the war. Mrs. Bull's daughter and three granddaughters being present. On the morning of her birthday she breakfasted at 7 o'clock and came from Sussex to Hampton on the noon train, a distance of twenty miles. As friends called during the afternoon and evening she did not retire until midnight.

Mrs. Bull has seven grandchildren and twenty-one great-grandchildren. Four of the grandchildren and eight of the great-grandchildren were present at the celebration. She recognized some of her old friends whom she has not met for years. Refreshments were served. Mrs. Bull making the first cut in the birthday cake which was decorated with one hundred roses and birthday greeting.

The evening came to an end after all singing. Auld Lang Syne and God Save the King. Mrs. Bull received many useful presents, as well as letters, cards and telegrams of congratulations. Mrs. Bull hopes to attend the fiftieth anniversary celebration of St. Paul's church, Hampton, October 10.

THE BRIDGE MATTER.
Fredericton, Oct. 4.—The city council of Fredericton met today and passed resolution in support of the movement to compel the C. P. R. to raise the new bridge which it is building across the river St. John to such a height that it will not impede navigation. This action was taken at the suggestion of G. S. Cushing, of St. John, who was one of the delegation which appeared before the provincial government at the last meeting. Mayor Reid of this city was also one of the same delegation.

LADY LAURIER DECLINES REQUEST

Effort Being Made to Have Her Become Candidate in Ottawa.

An effort is being made by Ottawa Liberals to induce Lady Laurier to allow her name to be put in nomination for one of the seats in this city. Influential members of the party forwarded a communication to her requesting her to run, but Lady Laurier said that she would be unable to consider the proposal.

Britton, Davenport, and John Burpee, held in connection with the shooting of Wendell Slipp on the night of September 27, were brought before Magistrate Comben at Woodstock yesterday and remanded until Friday. The accident feature of the case will be the defence of the accused, it is thought. Mr. Slipp is still in a serious condition, but is able to take some nourishment now.

ANOTHER CHANGE IN SOVIET POLICY

Will Take Five Per Cent. of All Meat Butchered in Russia — 64,000 Rubles to a Dollar.

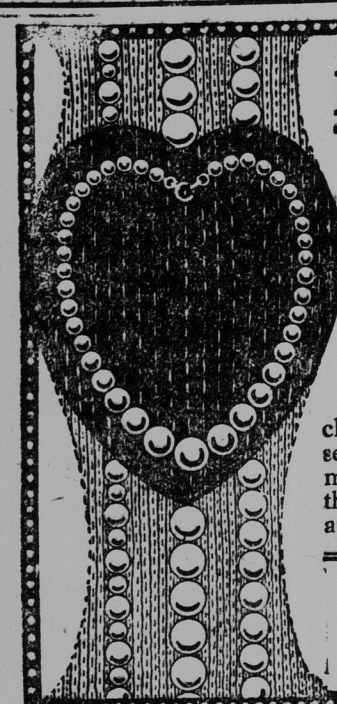

Moscow, Oct. 5. — Another marked change in economic policy is announced in the decision of the Economic Council to permit co-operative organizations and concessionaires to buy machinery and raw materials abroad independent of the government. Only the consent of the Commissariat of Trade will be required.

The co-operative societies will also be permitted representation in the Soviet missions abroad and allowed to export Russian manufactured articles with the consent of the Commissariat of Trade. This change is designed to enable concessionaires who have already taken over small factories to get supplies of machinery necessary for the resumption of industries generally, and it is regarded
