North End League.
In the North End League last night the Blue Ribbons defeated the Crescents in a fast game, 14 to 5. The batteries were: Blue Ribbons, O'Connor and Craft; Crescents, Currie and Henderson. A game tonight will be between the Blue Ribbons and the Wolves who are tied for first place in the league. A fast game is expected.

CRICKET.

British Matches.

London, July 21.—(Canadian Associated Press)—Seven county cricket matches commencing on July 17 were productive of some big scores and fine individual performances with both bat and ball were seen. Kent's defeat of Yorkshire at Maidstone by 121 runs and Sussex's pre-emptory dismissal of Lancashire at Eastbourne by an inning at 42 decidedly improved the championship position of Surrey, who themselves gained an easy win over Leicestershire by two wickets.

In a low scoring match at Derby, Somerset beat the home side by five wickets, Robson taking three for thirty-one in the first innings and five for twenty in the second. Warwick at home beat Gloucestershire by six wickets, the only redeeming feature in the latter's batting innings being the masterly batting of Dipper, who carried his bat through for nine for eighty-seven, was the first bowler to gain his 100 wickets.

On the third day of the pitch at Maidstone crumbled in places and Yorkshire were faced with the task of getting 267 to win in three hours and a quarter. Only Denton seemed to be able to deal with the bowling effectively.

class cricket this year, was the outstanding feature of the Lord's match which petered out somewhat tamely in a draw. Middlesex scored 447. Essex at one time looked like having to follow on. Subsequently there was a great stand by Russell and L. C. Eastman, a Leyton amateur, who, going in for the ninth, scored ninety-one.

Another fine performance was that of Robert Holt. In his 1st appearance for Sussex this season he scored 225 out of 478 against Lancashire, whose bowlers, however, were much below their usual standard. C. B. Fry reappeared for Hants at Southampton, but his side lost to Nottingham.

ADITORIAL

Ever notice the instant attention given when a pretty girl asks to be directed somewhere?

Rather reminds us of the appreciation the public, in general, is exhibiting for the wonderful line of white footwear we're showing.

"My wife couldn't tell a lie."
"Your yarns always work, eh?"

Neither can we—and when we state in black and white that our Silk, Vole and Georgette Waists, how sell at $1.19 to $2.00, are big values at $2.00 to $10, we're talking facts.

Free speech is a thing of the past. It's costing us a young fortune to chatter here.

And yet, if we can once induce you that our Ladies' Footwear is of the Sydney and Union—also Brussels, near Hanover.

Ladies, and fellow-voters, we'll try our best to be here again tomorrow. Look us up—and don't forget C. J. Bassett's Better Values in Footwear, Dry Goods, etc.

O. J. Killam ..... 43
J. W. Andrews ..... 42
W. McIntyre ..... 40

The sweepstakes were donated towards the fund for building a new club house. Commissioner Frink was present at the shoot and enjoyed the evening. He had the honor of holding the sweep-club members and wished the boys every success in their efforts to erect a suitable club house on the grounds at Glen Falls.

Several new faces were seen at the shoot and the new men expressed their willingness to join the club.

The prize donated by C. Carney was won by O. J. Killam. The second prize, Clifford McAvity and Walker Andrews tied for the second prize and the tie will be shot off next Wednesday evening.

W. G. McIntyre, of Montreal, donated a nice cash prize for next Wednesday evening's shoot.

After the shoot the executive of the club got together and decided to stage a tournament early in August the date of which will be announced in a few days.

By inch, as the spectators watched breathlessly Shamrock IV moved up and up. A mile from the stake the two were running neck and neck through the fluffy little white caps turned up by the breeze. They appeared so close together from the press of boats that it seemed as if a man might have jumped from challenger to defender. Actually, the distance was several boat lengths.

Shamrock kept up the steady crawl ahead until at the half mile mark from the line she was nearly a full boat length ahead. Then Resolute caught, a puff of steam from the committee boat's whistle registered Shamrock's snail.

Shamrock's Chance.

If the Shamrock could outstretch the Resolute in the two ten-mile legs in Friday's race by eight or ten minutes she may make up for the loss of a minute or two in the ten-mile heat to windward which would give her the third and deciding race. The last mile, therefore, on the windward leg today, which was in the nature of a reach, caused considerable discussion among the experts.

The Resolute, with her time allowance of seven minutes and one second used it to win by that margin, so the series tonight stands two to one in favor of Shamrock IV.

As the yachts crossed the line the committee asked their skippers whether they wished to race tomorrow and both replied in the negative. The next race, therefore, will be on Friday.

The summary of the yacht race follows:

	Start.	Finish.
Resolute	1:00.41	5:08.47
Shamrock IV	1:00.22	5:08.29

TIE RACE BUT

RESOLUTE WINS

ON ALLOWANCE

Sandy Hook, N. J., July 21.—(Canadian Press)—Shamrock and Resolute, in actual sailing time today, ran a tie race but Resolute wins on time allowance.

The two yachts crossed the line on the starboard tack with Shamrock leading by nineteen seconds. Captain Burton tacked immediately to port and headed for the shore. The Resolute followed leisurely, and the yachts had not sailed ten minutes when it was seen that the defender was up to her old tricks of beating out to windward, leaving the Shamrock to outfoot her or drop away.

For the first hour the Shamrock seemed to be making more by footing faster than she was losing by falling to leeward and at 2 o'clock it looked as if she might cross the Resolute if she tacked off shore. However, the Shamrock in shore until she was almost in shoal water. When she tacked it was seen at once that she had no chance to weather the Resolute. The defender waited until assured that she held the weather berth and then tacked almost on top of the Shamrock. This settled the race.

Captain Burton tried every possible sea trick to squirm out from under the Resolute. He made four or five fake tacks, throwing his boat up into the wind to get the Resolute to follow and falling back again on the old tack in the hope of leaving the Resolute in the lurch. In fact the Resolute gained a few hundred yards by these fake tacks of Shamrock IV. The yachts made more than twenty tacks between the Highlands and Long Branch, all of them within two miles of the beach still the Shamrock could not gain the weather berth.

Finally the Resolute refused to continue the short hitches and stood for the mark on a long six-mile board of shore. The Shamrock soon followed, and for more than half an hour the yachts ploughed through the waves, for the breeze increased to nearly twelve knots and at times knocked the boats down until the water was rushing over the lee rails.

The last mile was made with slightly started sheets and on this point of sailing the Shamrock proved herself a rife faster than the Resolute. In fact the last mile was quite significant in view of the fact that the next race will be over a triangular course with two legs on broad reaches.

Inch by inch, as the spectators watched breathlessly Shamrock IV moved up and up. A mile from the stake the two were running neck and neck through the fluffy little white caps turned up by the breeze. They appeared so close together from the press of boats that it seemed as if a man might have jumped from challenger to defender. Actually, the distance was several boat lengths.
