Junior Wolves Win.

On the Victoria alleys on Saturday evening the Junior Wolves defeated Black's Juniors, 1,233 to 1,192. The winners challenge any junior team in the city to roll a game this week. An answer is requested through this paper.

HOCKEY.

Senators' First Defeat.

Toronto, Jan. 4.—St. Patrick's won the N. H. L. schedule game here Saturday night from Ottawa by four to three. It was the Senators' initial appearance in Toronto this season, and their first defeat of the season.

Game Postponed.

Montreal, Jan. 5.—Owing to the scarcity of water consequent on the strike here, the scheduled meeting between Canadiens and Quebec, of the N. H. L. at the new Arena tonight, has been postponed and the Canadiens will not open their home season until Saturday, when they will play St. Patrick's at Toronto.

Dalhousie Defeats Glace Bay.

The Dalhousie University hockey team defeated an all star Cape Breton team in Sydney, N. S., Saturday night, 5 to 4.

Toronto Defeats Harvard.

The University of Toronto hockey team defeated Harvard in Cambridge Saturday night, 5 to 2. The Canadians outskated their opponents.

SERVICES YESTERDAY.

J. Ritchie Bell of Montreal opened an evangelistic campaign yesterday in the Fairville Methodist church and spoke in the morning, afternoon and evening. The afternoon service was for the Sunday school at which 129 out of the 137 pupils were present.

The importance of education in national existence was the subject which Rev. Dr. T. S. Boyle, principal of Kings College, Windsor, dealt with most ably in his sermon at Trinity church yesterday morning. Dr. Boyle declared that education, more than anything else, influences the development and trend of national life and he asked for the prayers and interest of his hearers that the team defeated Harvard in Cambridge Saturday night, 5 to 2. The Canadians outskated their opponents.

Just Horse Sense

The little grain of logic that percolates our cranium every once in a while, is the only excuse we have to offer for carrying a complete, clean, fresh, mellow stock of smokes continually. We realize that genuine smokers appreciate it; when they want one particular brand, they want it sorely—none other will do. Moreover, they want it right, and we have it right. It pays to be particular.
