KING'S DAUGHTERS RE-ELECT OFFICERS AT LAST SESSION

The ninth triennial convention of the Dominion branch of the International Order of The King's Daughters and Sons held its closing sessions in the Guild yesterday. Throughout the convention was an inspiring and most successful one. At the election of officers those of the preceding year were all re-elected, the president, Miss Brown, by acclamation. The invitation of the British Columbia branch to hold the next triennial convention in that province was accepted, and it is probable that Vancouver will be the city chosen. The executive of the provincial branch meets this morning.

Miss Rita Brennan sang most acceptably, "I Want to Be Ready." The paper of the afternoon was read by Miss E. M. Gomersy, Montreal, and was on the subject of "How to advance the work of the Order in Canada." The paper was very practical and helpful and laid particular stress on the need for junior work. An interesting discussion followed.

The resolution committee report expressed heart-felt sympathy to the members in New Brunswick in the loss of their recording secretary, Mrs. O. L. Barbour, and to those members prevented by ill-health from attending the convention. Gratitude was expressed to the Dominion officers and the members of the executive for the excellent programme carried out and to all who took part in or in any way contributed to make the convention so successful.

The closing session held in the evening was opened by devotional exercises led by Miss Gomersy and was chiefly taken up with the reports of guild and rest room work. The reports were given in order, Mrs. W. H. Nice, St. John work; Mrs. MacMougle, Ottawa work; Mrs. Austen, Toronto work; Mrs. McArthur, Owen Sound work; and Mrs. George Henderson, Victoria (B. C.) work. Miss Freda Jenkins' solo "This is My Task" was much appreciated. After the singing of the hymn "God Be With You Till We Meet Again" Miss Brown addressed the members, pronounced the benediction and declared the convention closed. An executive meeting was held at the close of the final session.

A Woman Wishing a Lower Berth.

"Upper 3?"

"Right here, ma'am."

"Any chance of getting a lower?"

"No, ma'am; they're all taken."

"No chance even after we get started?"

"No, ma'am."

"That's what they told me at the ticket office."

"Yes, 'm."

"I went early yesterday morning. Thought sure I'd get a lower going early as that—two days ahead. They told me they were all sold."

"Yes, 'm."

"You don't think there'd be a chance of getting a lower?"

"No, 'm."

"You would think going as early as that would be time, though."

"What time do we get in?"

"Six fifty."

"That's about—let's see—10 minutes before 6—no, 7—yes, 10 minutes to 7, isn't it?"

"Yes, 'm."

"Do we have to get out then?"

"No, ma'am. You can stay in the car till 7.30."

"Well, better wake me about 7?"

"Yes, 'm."

"O, porter!"

"Yes, 'm."

"Better wake me at quarter to 7. Then I won't have to hurry."

"Yes, 'm."

"And if you hear of a lower, you'll let me know, won't you?"

"Yes, 'm."—Atlanta Constitution.
