Mr. E. P. Kimball, Entwhistle, Alta., writes:
"Our little girl from birth was troubled with inflamed eyelids ing, a waxy discharge sticking the lids together and adhering with great tenacity. The child's grandmothers were consulted by mail, and both responded with a little sample box of Dr. Chase's Ointment. These were used as directed, and lasted until we could obtain a further supply from Edmonton. Improvement was very marked from the first application. The waxy discharge was easier removed and did not reappear. Inflammation subsided and has not returned."

It's up to you to look your best Young girls, old girls, plain girls, pretty girls—don't we all know those days before the mirror when, with a sigh, we turn away and say,

"Gosh-I do look plain!"

On those days when our skin looks bad and won't get right—our noses won't powder—our eyes are dull! We all know them. But wise women watch their skin and at the first sign of something take the best remedy—a dose of

"By gosh, where does the money go to?" Mr. Mann would ask.

How many families find that question bobbing up each 30 days—or each seven days, for that matter?

And how many hunt out the sources of leakage?

Checks in a great number of cases will show that the little dainties added to even one meal a day will send the

COULDN'T BEND WITHOUT PAIN

John Dixon is Delighted With New Found Health. Dreco Relieves His Troubles, Giving Further Proof of Its Value as a Corrective and System Builder.

No wonder people are so enthusiastic about Dreco. Every day they read or hear of some one among them who has experienced its remarkable health-giving powers. Every day it is proving to the most skeptical that good health, so easily lost, may be recovered if the proper methods are employed. The Dreco method is the proper method, because it is entirely natural. Its pure herb, root, bark and leaf juices are Nature's own remedies, as John Dixon quickly found out.

"My stomach was in such a bad condition that I could not eat anything substantial," says Mr. Dixon, who lives at 70a Young St., Montreal. "I was constipated and frequently had severe dizzy spells that prevented me from doing my work. I had pains across my back so bad I could hardly hend over and rheumatism tortured me in every "Dreco, however, has made a new man of me. My bowels are as regular as clockwork and I can eat and digest a hearty meal. I can feel the strengthening effect of the splendid nourishment I am getting from my food. With my liver active once more, those dizzy spells are gone; so too, have the pains in the back and rheumatism. I thank Dreco for what it has done for me and recommend it heartily."

Put your stomach, bowels, liver and kidneys in healthy working order, by taking this pure herbal remedy, Dreco. It tones and strengthens the whole system and purifies the blood stream. Dreco users never feel seedy, weak, run down or out of sorts. They are brimful of life and vitality, because their whole system has been cleansed and is working properly. Dreco contains no mercury, potash or habit forming drugs.
