

obtains at the Midsummer Examination the highest total number of marks in Latin and Greek Grammar, Authors, and Composition, on condition that his marks amount to two-thirds of the whole.

The Head Master offers a Prize for Classics to the Fourth Form on the same terms.

S. G. Wood, Esq., of Toronto, offers a Prize for the best English Prose Translation in Latin to the highest Form in the School. Accuracy of translation, combined with good idiomatic English, is to be the chief element of merit to be considered in awarding the prize, but none is to be given unless spelling and handwriting are creditable and satisfactory.
