

HONOUR COURSE.

Augustine, Confessions, books VII, VIII, IX. (Latin.)
 Calvin's Institutes, book IV.
 Ellicott's Commentary on the Pastoral Epistles.
 Fairbairn's Hermeneutical Manual.
 Hetherington's History of the Church of Scotland.

All French Students and Students preparing for French work, are required to take the Sacred Criticism of the three years, and English Students who understand French are urged to do the same. Students taking this course and passing examination in it are exempted from examination in the Biblical History of the first year, the Apologetics of the second, and the Exegesis of the third. In the honour work they may also take the examinations in Latin, Greek and Hebrew authors, Gaussen and Calvin in French, instead of English. In the first year they may exchange Blaikie's "For the Work of Ministry" for the French edition of Vinet's Homiletics; in the second year Farrar for Guizot, Méditations sur la Religion Chrétienne; and in the third year Hetherington for De Félice, Histoire des Protestants de France. Students intending to exercise these options must give notice to the Principal or the Professor of Sacred Criticism, at least three weeks before the sessional examinations.

French Students are not required to give more than one of their College Exercises in English, and at least two of them must be in French.

While French Students are eligible for all the Scholarships and other rewards of the Theological course, in consideration of the disadvantage at which they are placed by pursuing their studies in both languages, certain scholarships are offered for competition to them along with those taking the Literary course, the subjects of examination for which will be found under the head of Literary Curriculum for French Students.
