

Extracts from the Regulations.

COURSES OF LECTURES, FEES, &c.

1st.—Each Professor shall deliver at least five lectures during the week, except in the classes of Clinical Medicine and Clinical Surgery, in each of which only two Lectures shall be required; and in that of Medical Jurisprudence, if extended through six months, in which case three Lectures a week will suffice.

2nd.—Each Lecture shall be of one hour's duration.

3rd.—Every Professor shall occasionally examine his class upon the subjects treated of in his preceding Lectures; and every such examination shall be considered a Lecture.

4th.—A roll of the names of the Students attending each class shall be called from time to time.

5th.—All tickets which have not a Certificate of attendance attached, shall be rejected when presented as testimonials previous to examination, unless the omissions shall be satisfactorily accounted for.

6th.—The fee for each class shall be $12, with the following exceptions: For each of those of Medical Jurisprudence, Practical Anatomy, Practical Chemistry, and Botany, $6; for Clinical Medicine and Clinical Surgery, each $6. Practical Pharmacy, $4. The class fees are payable in advance to the Registrar, who will furnish all tickets.

7th.—Any student, after having paid the fees, and attended two courses of any class, shall be entitled to a perpetual ticket for that class, except in Practical Anatomy.

8th.—The courses of all the Classes, except Practical Chemistry, Botany and Medical Jurisprudence, shall be of six months' duration; the Classes of Practical Chemistry, Botany and Practical Pharmacy, of three months' duration; and that of Medical Jurisprudence, either of three months' duration, in which case Five Lectures a week shall be given, or of six months' duration, in which case only Three Lectures a week shall be required.

9th.—The courses shall commence on the third Tuesday in October, and with the exception of a vacation at Christmas, shall continue for the six months following.

All students except graduates in arts of recognized Universities are required, by Provincial law, to submit to the matriculation examination, the commencement of their Medical studies being counted from that date.
