A professional English cricketer is employed during the spring months to give instruction in cricket.

A large covered rink and a rink in the open air give opportunities for skating in the winter. For cycling and running, a quarter-mile cinder track has been prepared on the grounds. There are several tennis courts.

A Cadet Rifle Corps, attached to the Royal Grenadiers, is organized in connection with the College, and in accordance with the regulations of the Militia Department of Canada, which furnishes the corps with rifles, belts and bayonets. Boys of suitable age and physically qualified are expected to join the corps.

MUSIC.

Dr. Albert Ham, Organist of St. James' Cathedral, directs the musical education of the school.

Regular training in singing is given without extra charge to resident pupils and to such day pupils as desire to attend the classes.

Dr. Ham gives private lessons in the college on the organ or piano. Instruction on other instruments will be provided as occasion arises.

SCHOLARSHIPS.

At the opening of the College in September, 1898, four Scholarships of the value of fifty dollars each will be offered for competition among boys entering as resident pupils.

Two of these Scholarships are given by the Old Boys' Association—one by George W. Beardmore, Esq., and one by William Christie, Esq.

.

At the same time two Scholarships of the value of twenty-five dollars each will be offered for competition among boys entering as day pupils.

The examination for these scholarships will be held on Thursday, September the 15th, in the College building. Intending competitors should send in their names to the Bursar of the College.

In January, 1899, four Scholarships of $50 each will be offered for competition.

Two of these will be given in the Upper School and two in the Lower.

These form Scholarships will be open to resident pupils only.