MIRAMICHI ADVANCE, CHATHAM. NEW BRUNSWICK, APRIL 12, 1894. reverse of protection of the fur seals. It to call the leader of the government a of the great Scottish poet almost con- effect that there had been differences of would not be poisoned. For four hundred Wilson's handwriting, but could not identify Miramichi Advance. was a grave omission, he said, that it did not provide for a close season ashore. while asleep to brush them off like flies among whom my lot was cast. I have General. the smallest and most insignificant rural not sent anote to Mr. Blair because he thought hamlet in England and get a thimbleful of the latter was unreasonably angry, and he The slaughter of seals ashore led to the from the sweets of office for which they always claimed that the writings of Burns HATHAM, N. B. - - APRIL 12, 1894. The slaughter of seals ashore led to the trom the sweets of outce for which they always called the the site of the state o The Toronto Empire says : "The steam- liquor without peril to one's stomach or to (Quine) wound' at back down on what he "Gibson Bowles found fault with the "I should think the honorable member a sturdy independence, a sterling honesty, Gloucester County Dalhousie to Burlington pier in 1 hour United States which prohibit the sale of The above are the material points of exam-Paris Court of Arbitration. Its decision, he said, had given Great Britain the basid, had given Great Britain the basid, had given Great Britain the basid, had given Great Britain the basid ba Our advices from Gloucester are to the effect that neither Mr. Sivewright he said, had given Great Britain the charge me with inconsistency, in view of the old land, but constitutes them the of seven miles or two miles an hour with one of those States (suppressing the localities transaction was a matter of some disappointnor Mr. Landry will offer for the shadow without the substance in the his own shifts in politics." bulwark of human freedom, the un-Behring Sea. One effect of the award would be that the British people would be taxed in order to subsidize one of the greatest monopolies the world had ever seen. "Sir Richard Webster, who was one of the British counsel before the Paris tribunal, røbuked Mr. Bowles. Neither the time ner the plaze was fitting for a nent to the opposition leader. only): Behring Sea. One effect of the award Hon. Mr. Tweedie-"He has shifted swerving advocates of the rights of man, The committee adjourned till to-morrow vacant seat in the House of Commons orning at 10 o'clock. for that constituency, but that Theo. Blanchard, Esq. M. P. P., will be a greatest monopolies the world had ever has. The honorable member who stood Burns that Scotland can pass the grand FREDERICTON, April 6 .- The Quinn incandidate with the certainty of elec- seen. quiry was resumed today. Mary Quinn tion. It is understood that Mr. "Sir Richard Webster, who was one of ranks but also in the hardshell ranks is plumes and proudly answer to her name at the general roll call of the nations. In tion. It is understood that Mr. estified that she had a good deal to do with her father's business affairs; that she compilers being M. Edouard Durassier, Chief de Bureau in the French Ministry of Marine, and M. Charles Valentino, late of the French Navy, and now a sous chef de bureau in the Ministry of Marine, gives the following statistics of the relative naval strength of France, Russia, and Great Britain :
France, Russia, Britani, Armored ships 66 55 81 Unarmored ships 160 72 280 Torpedo boats 230 180 155
Sinday night and the investigations which used the following statistics of the relative naval strength of France, Russia, and Great Britain : field, but although he will poll a fair tribunal, rebuked Mr. Bowles. Neither become a bright and shining light in the his poem "A Man's a Man for a'that." knew of the money being given out by her ather to William to put in the election fund. vote in certain districts, he will have the time nor the place was fitting for a more aristocratic field of ritualism and Burns has given to the world the grand-William brought it back, saying that Mr. no chance of success. Mr. Doucet had challenge of the tribunal's decision. The conservatism. The honorable member est declaration of independence that ever Blair had refused to take it. After that a very poor reception on Monday night et Patit Rocher, where he endesvored William got the money again, and then at Petit Rocher, where he endeavored award. All in all, the regulations would that he was not quoting from my speech capitals. Many years ago when despotism relative naval strength of France, Russia, rought back a receipt for it, which she to get the support of Mr. Landry's suppress the evils which both governments at all but from that celebrated pamphlet had its home on the European continent, and Great Britain : hought was in Mr. Wilson's handwriting, -It is the new shortening out she was not sure. Later she saw William friends, who would not listen to him. objected to most strenuously. The award of his called "Twenty Years of Tory it was declared illegal in several countries nake a copy of the receipt, and the paper taking the place of lard Mr. Blanchard is now in the County had proved a reasonable solution of a Rule." (Laughter.) to either publish or circulate that produced is the copy. She knew it to be or cooking butter, orand had a very largely attended meet- difficult question, and he himself regard- "No doubt the honorable member still immortal poem. What a high compli-55 51 72 280 155
 Armored ships
 66
 55
 81

 Unarmored ships
 160
 72
 280

 Torpedo boats
 230
 180
 155

 Officers
 2.227
 1573
 2.803
 the copy, because it was William's handwrit. nuch of a business this man has conducted in such as a business this man has conducted in a since known, but that he has been a been and the since the since the since the since and the since the since and the sin both. Costs less, goes ing in Bathurst on Monday night. ed the result of the arbitration as a long recalls with pride the eagerness with ment to Robert Burns ! He declared farther, and is easily-He seems to have the support of all step towards the settlement of inter- which he was embraced by the anti- that : J. H. Barry testified that he had written parties, now that it is understood that national disputes by peaceful means. Catholic party in 1890. Well, that redigested by anyone. The honest man, tho' e'er sae poor, Is king o' men for a' that. Seamen 41.536 38.000 42.507 Mr. Landry will not run, although it The award was a monument to what could minds me of the story of an old negro Wm. A. Quinn, asking for the payment * The tyrants of Europe declared that be done by fair argument toward settling down in Georgia who went fishing. As [Couclusion nest Week.] subscription in consquence of Wm. A. AT ALL GROCERS. dangerous international differences. After he sat on the bank he had a boy with him Sir Richard Webster's speech the bill who sat nodding and waiting for the The tyrants and their tyranny have pass-[Continued from issue of 29th March.] would make little difference.even should Quinn having told him that his father was [Popular Science Monthly.] Abolish all Prohibitive Liquor Laws. The "Quinn" Investigation. He (Barry) had never heard a syllable from * that gentleman also enter the field. bite that never came. He kept nodding and nodding until he fell over into the o'that" has become the universal anthem Made only by Tramps. passed its second reading." 🗆 N. K. FAIRBANK & CO., 🧫 the Quinns or any one else that the sub-BY APPLETON MORGAN. FREDERICTON, April 5,-Te night's in What a Combination!and nodding until he fell over into the river. A benevolent old gentleman who charges made in the Assembly against Attorney-General Blair, a few weeks agoand nodding until he fell over into the clarges of Sir Walter Scott :of mankind. It may interest you to how the circumstances under which that liquor laws have worked, and are still working hardship to our people. The politan cities is palpably on the deduce-politan cities i Four hundred unemployed men in Wellington and Ann Sts., MONTREAL. San Francisco have organized an in-7111111111 dustrial army to start for Washington. Like Coxey's army, they are simply politan cities is palpably on the decline. Here the ever-increasing complexity of was a tool in the hands of Stockton, Phinney Not one cent of money paid to Wilson (if language of Sir Walter Scott : The old gentleman said to the fisherman : by Mr. Pitts, of York, includes more perorganized tramps. I cannot tell how the truth may be I say the tale as 'twas said to me. 'That was a noble act of yours to save 'That was a noble act of yours to save that boy's life. Is he a son of yours' 'O, no,' said the fisherman, 'he ain't no obline of mine that nearly little varmint.' but instead of heing shown into the hall sons than were at first suspected of complicity therein. If it had been published, Behring Sea. SHARP'S BALSAM O, no, said the fisherman, 'he sin't no chile of mine, that pesky little varmint.'
'Why then did you take such an interest in saving the boy's life?' 'Well, the fact in to the kitchen to have his repast with the servants. The poet, as any man of genius would do, resented the slight. He servants. The poet, as any man of the bait.'' (Laughter.)
''So I think the honorable^member for Hawkersville carried the bait when he fell off the bank in 1880. No Officholic meetaber carried when the conservative h party fished him out of the river and placed him on the bank." (Great he conservative h party fished him out of the river and placed him on the bank." (Great he conservative he placed him on the bank." (Great he conservative he has are tamed they remembered that placed him on the bank." (Great he conservative he placend him on the bank." (Great he conservative he had carectine t when the matter was being put through The Senate of the United States the press of Canada, that Mr. A. A. has passed the Behring Sea bill, which OF Stockton, leader of the opposition, Mr. was based upon the decision of the Phinney who was his lieutenant last HOREHOUND international commission which sat in session, Mr. Pitts, Mr. McCready, Fredericton correspondent of the Sun Paris last year. AND ANISEED. and Mr. Crockett, editor of the Gleaner Signs of the Times. --FOR--and the regular Frederiction correspon The Democrats seem to be incapable dent of the St. John Globe, were all visit. CROUP, WHOOPING COUCH of holding their own in dominant ing old Mr. Quinn's house under cover COUCHS AND COLDS. of darkness and engaged in getting up United States politics. They have United States politics. They have lost Rhode Island and gone back very the poor old fellow was induced to sign, placed him on the bank." (Great Burns was in the kitchen. The was she biller is reason to believe that there. Quinn. OVER 40 YEARS IN USE. materially in Ohio, whilst their vote the whole business would have been look-25 CENTS PER BOTTLE. own competition. He rose and gave "A But, in the towns and cities of the liquor- Mr. Powell moved a resolution that Mr. Mr. Quinn but the letter had been tamper-ed with, as a portion of it was marked with has decreased in almost every other ed upon as, at least, open to suspicion of Man's a Man for a' that," and when he law-ridden States, the more stringent the Phinney be permitted to appear as counsel quotation marks, indicating that he (Blair) ARMSTRONG & CO., PROPRIETORS, Wild-Geese Have Made a Mistake. election of the year. a conspiracy and fallen quite flat upon ordinances, and the more important the for Mr. Quinn and claimed that he (Phinney) was quoting from his (Quinn's) letter to him, T JOHN B It is a popular fallacy that migratory lordship and said : the public. The aged Quinn-who would "smeller," it more and more becomes a had a right to appear in his capacity as a He wished to say that the words were not A Sign of the Times. never have been heard of as a factor in animals and birds possess the faculty of Ye see yon birkie ca'd a lord' anticipating the kind of weather before them, and are governed thereby with un-erring instinct. The thousands of wild geese now at Tabusintac and other bays The British Commons on Thursday political life, but for the use that there 9 CORDS IN 10 HOURS worthies wished to make of him-doubt-less, felt himself greatly honored by the interest Mr. Stockton and Mr. Phinney along the coast, however, furnish convincast, adopted a proposal by J. H. Dalziel (Liberal) to establish a Legisdaily. Even 14ds of tender years, club- wished to make it appear that he was to Mr. Quinn's mouth words that were not bing together, buying a demijohn of he had a retainer from Quinn would sadly used by Quinn to him, and he (Blair) in his he had a retainer from Quinn would sadly interface with his role as custodian of the lature for Scotland to deal with purely Scottish affairs. The vote stood 180 Scottish affairs. The vote stood 180 to 170. The Government's proposal was merely to establish a Scotch stand-ing committee. Cf Course! The Halifax Board of Trade has had suspicions of uncanniness in the ing proof that they are the victims of mis-The Halifax Board of Trade has passed a resolution expressing satisfac tion at the propert of a fast. Atlantic F. O. PETTERSON dead "Billy Quinn," who was ever look. they made their flight northward. They steamship service, which is to have one of its termini at that port, and to D is bed father from being "plowed and they made their flight northward. They are now in a pitiable plight on our coast. bis old father from being "plowed and they made their flight northward. They are now in a pitiable plight on our coast. bis old father from being "plowed and they made their flight northward. They are now in a pitiable plight on our coast. bis old father from being "plowed and they made their flight northward. They are now in a pitiable plight on our coast. bis old father from being "plowed and they made their flight northward. They are now in a pitiable plight on our coast. bis old father from being "plowed and they are too weak or dazed from want of they made their flight northward. They packs of human freedom shining bright and beautiful in the everlasting sun of universal bis old father from being "plowed and they are too weak or dazed from want of Merchant Tailor receive a Dominion subsidy of $750-000. At the same time that very d about his house nightly. He would CHATHAM - - N, B. perance reformer, remains unerringly wright, Mr. Pitts and Mr. Powell. sensible Board has passed resolutions have told them he had misled his father of winter. The cold nights and chilly Then let us pray that come it may All Kinds of Cloths, suits or single Garments. paction of which is respectfully invited. F. O.PETTERSON.

to five cents a gallon.

question. We have also, in Canada,

the decision of the Paris tribunal large-

it might form a part of the active cam-

have been rebuked to silence by Sir

Therefore the government would not

"Sir Charles Russell, the Attorney

General, then moved the second reading.

He reviewed the events leading up to the Paris arbitration, and complimented

Lord Salisbury upon his efforts to make a happy event,' said Sir Charles. 'If the two countries which have so much in

of force to decide their quarrel.' (Hear, hear!) The award of the Court was very satisfactory from the British point of view. It settled questions of jurisdiction in accordance with the view which our government had first put forward and fisheries as well as redress for the British rawn practically on the lines of the applies only to British subjects, as the

"Arthur J. Balfour, leader of the unionists, said that the government had

American bill applies only to Americans.

provisions apply is somewhat wider. It the poet :

ommon had resorted to the rude methods

answer the question till then.

ly for political reasons, and who would urging that the kerosene tax be reduced

every man of them, from Mr Stockton down to the representative of the Globe, knew, from the fart the representative of the Globe, knew, true, not only, but he is positively a the statute-books of our American States Mr. Blair. and the temperance reformer would dis-prosecute the charges he made, declined to retarder of public progress. But once do so, but claimed the right to produce early Saturday morning by special train and appear, the benign influence of the city were issued for the attendance of Mr. Wm. W. Wetmore, then a student in his office was in his private office at the time and wasappointed to a clerkship in the office of the of liquor would disappear, and only the thrown open to the public. Hou. Mr. Blair clerk of the pleas, and that he (Blair) had It has been said that he who makes two horrer of the drunkard would remain. appeared in his own behalf and proceeded to got angry with Quinn, and had told him to blades of grass grow where only one grew before, is a benefactor of his race. Barns has made a thousand joys spring up in the field of nossy where only one aristed has made a thousand joys spring up in the field of poesy, where only one existed before he entered it. His songs are sung the world over, and his poems are the delight of all nations. Especially dear are hoth some and noems to the weary-footed. after he (Blair) left town to keep an appointhome sick Scot in a foreign land. "Anld breakers; no personal and paternal to appear on behalf of a witness in other is now in court, drove him on that occasion. Ir. Qu'nn had sworn that when he (Blair) Mr. Stockton made a big bluff to main- went to his store he was on the way to the "Bonnie Jean," "Bonnie Doon," and But until we wipe out all these present tain his position, but had the wind badly country; that the team was at the store door kindred songs are dear to him as the apple restrictive liquor laws we cannot hate the taken out of his sails by Mr. Powell siding and that it was late in the afternoon. He drunkard. We must be charitable with with the government members of the com- (Blair) now swore that he was not in town that afternoon (Saturday) and had not called we must even respect him as a man who is Mr. Blair said he had not the slightest on Mr. Quinn, senior. He believed that while the human bosom swells at the upholding the liberty of the subject at the objection to Mr. Phinney or Mr. Stocktou some two or three weeks before that he had posed in prowling about under cover of istible humour for your Englishman who thoughts of fatherland; the sympathetic expense of his health; as a sort of public appearing for any one who would father the made that call on Quinn, and had not then. as Quinn stated, told him William was to House of Commons on Wednesday of Blair in company with Pitts, McCready, course, thrift can be overdone, like every. below and the angel above him -while lads maxim in his behalf. Instead of "Drunken. Mr. Pitts finally said that he would father have an office. He returned to the city last week and the grumblers appear to Crockett, etc., places those gentlemen in thing else, and at the best it is never a very and lasses love one another-while flows ess leads to poverty," or "Drunkeness leads the chaage so far as it was contained in the Sunday morning, driving home through the an awkward position, to say the least of great virtue to brag of; but as things are it the bonnie Doon, or grows the gowan on to wretchedness," we must read it "Poverty declaration. And it was decided that Mr. night, and next day was election day. He. had not spoken to Mr. Quinn, sr., on the to drunkeness." Instead of worrying lest Mr. Quinn's testimony revealed some subject of his son being appointed to office-The meanness of the Globe's attitude of the 5th says:— "Sir George Baden-Powell, conserva-tive, formerly Commissioner to the Behring Sea, questioned the government in the House of Commons this evening as to the bill providing for the execution of the Paris award. He wished to know the Paris award. He wished to know in the next dominion election. The worse case, for between the ages of 70 and 75 and unknown as the one on Nebo's lonely and unknown as the one on Nebo's lonely accompained by Mr. McCready. Referring James Smith, the next witness, testified the Parts award. He wished to know whether or not the bill had been fully approved by the Canadian government." its editors, who was defeated in 1891, will, "Sidney Buzton, Parliamentary Secre-tary of the Colonial Office,' replied that the Durition of the Bair's character can be destroyed, a drunkard by the selling of liquor; or as purported to be copies of the various letchances with his party, hence the Globe's eager pursuit of Mr. Blair, in company with the Sun. Gleaner, Stockton, Phinney 1890 that he received the letter from Mr. With the exception of a few minutes at the are for the first time presentel to us in concrete and authentic form by Mr. Charles face of the haughty idlers and the aristroc. The back of the haughty idlers and the aristroc. The back of the haughty idlers and the aristroc. The back of the haughty idlers and the aristroc. The back of the haughty idlers and the aristroc. The back of the back of the haughty idlers and the aristroc. The back of the apt to be a bad master if allowed the upper elapsed between the tetter from Mr. Barry. stop, but had gone into the country. He swore positively that Mr. Blair had not stopped at Quinn's on their way out of town. John Auderson, ex-M. P. P., swore that there never had been any understand. ing that the note he endorsed for Wilson was in counection with election funds nor did he for example), in their printed directions to to be surrendered until either the office ever hear of any arrangement with Quinn whereby the latter was to get an office. His (Anderson's) endorsement was for Wilson's very young children in the heated season be satisfactory reply. When the copy of the own private business as he understood it. John W. Wetmore, claim solictor of the liquor laws are legislation, not agasnst sick shown witness said he did not remember C. P. R., stated that he had been a student would be a legitimate and a constitutional have been a week after he gave the meney tather had given him $200 to put in the

a letter on the 16th of January. 1890, tr

ne went to St. John Friday morning, speakimmediately after and came to Fredericton let every liquor law he expunged from evidence in rebuttal to testimony offered by was in his office on Saturday morning till Mr. Blair. On motion of Mr. Tweedie subpoenas Saturday young Quinn came in. Mr. John ondemning the new tax on tea and by showing him a bogus receipt for the days keep the snow on the black lands, by showing him a bogus receipt for the $200 he loaned Mr. Wilson in the ordinary course of business. It is probable that

The Behring See Question in the Im- to the representative of the Globe, knew, soil of the black laud in the few spots from the first, that young Quinn's ambi-

Mr. Pitts, when asked if he proposed to ing in St. John that night. He left St. John

GEO. W. CUTTER,

FIBE, LIFE AND ACCIDENT COMPANIES

Five Thousand Hides Wanted.

F will pay cash on delivery for all the hides I can rocurs; also, I will buy one thousand calf skins ther for cash or for exchange either for cash or for exchange. Parties in any part of the County needing plaster-ing hair can be supplied by sending in their ordern to me. 5.15 WILLIAM TROY Chatham, May 15th, 1893: national award.

MUSICAL INSTRUCTION

_____ON_____ Piano and Pipe Organ. Richard Webster. A London despatch

Miss Carter, organist of St. Luke's Church, Ghat-ham (Graduate of the Toronto College of Music is in the monitor munils for instruction in the reads to receive pupils for instru re, in primary and advanced grades. urms on application at the residen-ng, Esq., Duke Street, Cbatham.

the Dominion government had agreed in NOTICE. general to the conditions of the bill, although much opposed to one or two of not had been introduced into the United and Pitts. authorise the issue of debentures for exceeding five thousand dolars, payable years, for the purpose of building and a Fire Engine House in the Town of C States Congress, differed in form from the bill before the House. In substance the otherwise improving the facilities of said town for protection against fire, the site of said engine house, plan and other particulars of same to be subject of the approval of the Municipal Council of Northumberland as a coadition of the issue of two measures were very similar. The points of difference would be explained later. The papers on the subject, he said, would not arrive until to-morrow.

Any person baving any claims ackinst the estate of Eliza Fitzpatrick, widow, labe of Chatham, leceased, are requested to present the same duly attested within one month from date, and any per-nons indebted to said estate are requested to pay the THOS. CRIMMEN, Admini

W. C. WINSLOW, Proctor. Chatham, N. B. Jan. 24, 1891

LAND FOR SALE.

icres more or less. If not sold by the first May next it will on that

JOHN ELLIS

Chatham, 28th March 1894.

The Chatham Gas Light Co'y offer for sale the If not previously disposed of, will be action, on Tuesday 3rd July in front of the sold by auction, of Post Office at 12 of Also a quantity of 1 to 4 inch iron pipes, brass suplings, brass stop cocks, etc etc.

JOHN FOTHERINGHAM. Sec'v Chatham Gas Light Co

Parties who intend bringing grist to Russell & himseli McDougall's mill will do well to rush it in, as the mill will close down for a while unless fully hear!)

RUSSELL & McDOUGALL. Black Brook, March 21, 1894

tions had caused him to mislead his father bared by the sun, and they are as thin and There are, in the Imperial Parlia- tions had caused nim to missed nim to ment, a number of persons who seem of it would never be developed, so they be hoped that the experiences of these the eighteenth century was in their midst of taste, would decrease, as it always has not attend, but at the evening session that into the election fund and wanted a pledge to think that peaceful solutions of hatched their gruesome scheme in their prematurely-arrived flocks will not cause the eignteenth centry was in their indust of taste, would decrease, as it always has not attend, but at the evening session that into the election fund and wanted a pleage to think that peaceful solutions of all decrease in the civilized communities gentleman appeared and took the stand. from him (Blair) that he (Quinn), would be compatible with British traditions, and gratulated themselves in the anticipation Miramichi hereafter. these are not satisfied with the diplo- of having a deadly effective canvass for the country against Mr. Blair. Their matic settlement of the Behring Sea plot, however, has been completely ex-Pauper Old Age. What would the politicians, who posed by the light turned on it before delight in the pretended belief that Canagentlemen in public life who object to the assembly investigating committee. da is a poor country to live in, say if No one who reads the Gleaner or Sun da is a poor country to have relating to what is in the Glasgow News relating to would expect anything approaching the pauperism of aged men in Great ly for political reasons, and who would mould expect anything approximately the pauperism of aged men in Great like to keep the question open so that decent treatment for Mr. Blair in Britain could be truthfuly said of the their columns, while the Globe is known Dominion ? Here it is :

as an equally vencmous, but more crafty paign matter in the next Dominion enemy. That persons connected with worst of company; but they are frequently Anderson My Jo, "Highland Mary," evaders. "Age, ache, and penury-they are the election. The Behring Sea business, those papers should go anywhere or do found together; and a horror of their looming however, may be looked upon as finally anything, clean or unclean, to injure him often makes youth unnaturally timid and settled, although legislation will be is not a matter of wonder, but for Mesers. closefisted. It gave Scotland, in her poorer of his eye, pure as the dew of the mornnecessary on both sides of the Atlantic Stockton, and Phinney, who, doubtless, days, a racial characteristic which has so to confirm and establish the inter- wish to be thought a little above the com- long stuck to her that the hackneyed phrase Yes! and they will continue to be so

mon herd of political scavengers, to be ex- of "Bang gaed saapence" has still an irres

The meanness of the Globe's attitude for it probably rises from a love of indpen-Birks of Alberfeldie, meantime, it will improve Mr. Ellis' every three over the age of sixty-five years the Ayr and the Firth.

its details. The Behring Sea bill, which with the Sun, Gleaner, Stockton, Phinney lovely as Lapland right." These statistics that has inspired so much hope in the bosom man.

Even the Spare Man is "No Good " Booth, who has laid them before the Statis They all seem to get at the opposition's tical Society as a result of a minute analysis spare man from St. John, and poor Dr. of Government returns. A good deal of Alward does n't seem to find his academi. this poverty is largely due to the depopulation friendly arrangement with the United as a relaxation from departmental duties, where does the remedy lie? It is certainly States. 'It would have been a most un- practically sits upon him. St. John not to be found for everybody in thrift, for Progress, referring to Dr. Alward says :- great masses of the people do not enjoy a

The present session of the legislature wage sufficient to do more than feed them in has been a rather trying one for the junior the most meagre way. member for St. John (Dr. Alward.)

A Man's a Man for a'that.

Closely following the rib-rending retort of Mr. Tweedie, Mr. Emmerson paid his An admirer of the poet, Burns asks us respects to that genuleman as well as to to make room for an address given by Dr. the Alphabetical Alfred in a very effec-Campbell, of Seaforth, Ont., author of prohibiting the pedding of meat. tive fashion. "As I listened to the melfi-"The Land of Burns;" at a Burns concert provided proper regulations of the lueus tones of these honorable gentlemen subjects who suffered injury. The bill is they were of the public weal, they were many others who have a warm corner in still more fond of the sound of their own their hearts for the great Scottish poet. modus vivendi, but the area to which its voices. They remind me of the words of

"I love to hear its giddy gurgle, I love to hear its fluent flow

I love to hear it go." (Laughter.)

noment in fulfilling British obligations. because I am a member of the government poet. A friend of mine in town said late-

by my brethren of the Sons of Scotland to preside on this occasion ; and though I The Advisory Board of the Manitoba

"The honorable member for Hawkers- the temptation to aid in the 135th tion of introducing the teaching of pursued a wise course in not losing a ville has charged me wich inconsistency anniversary of the birth of my favorite agriculture in the public schools.

on a letter.

RAIL WAY TO BLACK BROOK. In doing this work of international justice of Mr. Blair, whom I once called a Rip ly that he would be ashamed to meet At the annual meeting of the Dominion the Ministers would have the support of Van Winkle. What I really said was Shakespeare in the next would because he Artillery Association in Ottawa last week the Blair's anger at his hav-in the election of 1890 were Messrs. Blair, himself and his colleagues. (Hear, that Mr. Blair's attitude on the question knew so little of his writings. I said that Hon. Mr. Patterson, Minister of Militia, century, declared that the glory of England ing sent him the money. It was in conse- Anderson, Bellamy and myself. The first of woman suffrage was an exhibition of I would not be ashamed to meet Robert took occasion to compliment Major- was her inns. The roads might be rough quence of the letter he got from Mr. Blair time I knew anything about any contribution "Sir George Baden-Powell protested Rip Van Winkleism. I think it is a poor Burns at any rate, for I had made his General Herbert, and also to contradict and full of highwaymen, but at an inn the that this note of apology was got. The wit- W. A. Quinn or his father intended to make that the bill had many flaws and was the compliment to these gentlemen opposite works a life study and had kept the name statements in some newspapers to the traveller could take his ease and be sure he | ness said he was well acquainted with Mr. to the election fund was at my office on

At the conclusion of this recitation would spread to the country, liquor drink- H. Quan and Mary Quinn. differences with other nations are instructed to its to old Quinn's and, probably, confrom the Great Author of his existence. before he entered it. His songs are sung morality, because with no sumptuary discussion followed, Mr. Blair and Mr.

Lang Syne," "Afton Water," "John statutes to evade, and so no statute than an advisory sense. him, even cherish as well as pity him; mittee. ing and sweet as the breath of spring.

This subject came up in the British darkness, personally hunting down Mr. has never learned what lies behind it. Of chord vibrates that links man to the worm martyr. We must revers many a popular charge.

is not an unworthy feature of any people, the brae, the heather on the moor, and the leads to drunkeness," "Wretchedness leads Phinney might appear on his behalf.

chances with his party, hence the Globe's is a pauper-a fact perfectly appalling, and Let us thank the great Architect of the if the fruits of the earth expressed or dis. ters he had written to Wilson and of the day, on the arrival of the train from St. John.

malarious and impure water is a circulator 1889, and Mr Barry's letter of January Alward does n't seem to find his academi-cal degree very valuable in the Assembly as a protection from those who know that, while he occasionally awakens and is permitted by Mr. Pitts to utter his thoughts in all the alleged freshness of their origin, some active member of the diluted with a few drops of whiskey. But note from Wilson in favor of Anderson was > babies, but against the few drops of whisky ever having seen it before. Dr. Stockton in Mr. Blair's office, and remembered the which might save their little lives, and if here excitedly interjected, "Why I got it meeting at the Mechanics' Institute, St. the poor parents cannot afford to pay a from you only a week ago." But witness John, on Friday night. Next morning he John Kirkpatrick was fined $10 at physician for a slip of paper giving the still adhered to his statement that he could was with the attorney general in his private Kingston last week for using an old stamp Latin name of whiskey, the poor baby must not recognize it. When asked who he had office after the latter's return from St. John. He was attending to some private law malarious water. If there is any such thing Mr. Quinn said that he was not particular business with Mr. Blair, which business Belleville City Council has passed a as a salutary liquor law, not derived from who got it. He had sent it to be given Mr. Blaur had to get off before going excise or police jurisdiction, it would be, either to Mr. Blair or Mr. Barry. He would into the country. While they were thus perhaps, a statute insuring the purity of not swear when William brought that $200 engaged, young Quinn entered and said he llquor; reviving that old English function- back to him. It might have been as much wished to speak to the attorney-general in Woodstock. It will be read with is spoken of as likely to be adjutant of ary, the "ale-taster" with his care over all as a mouth. He thought it was only a short privately. The latter said to never mind his drinkables publicly offered for sale. This time, not more than a few days, but might (Wetmore) being there. Quinn then said his

> The execution of Pendergast, the law as providing for the public safety to William that the latter brought it back election fund but wanted a pledge, a write assassin of Mayor Harrison, of Chicago, (which is, after all is said, the origin and and said Mr. Blair was angry and had rethought, from the atterney summit of all laws.) There is no greater fused to receive it. It was not until after general, that he (Qainn) should get an office charm to the tourist in rural England than the election that he paid the money over Mr. Blair told Quinn that he was insultthe certainty that, no matter how small the again to be given to Wilson. He had no ing him by such a proposal, and to take have not appeared at any public gather-be advisory board of the Education has ap-in the advisory board of the Education has ap-village through which he passes, he will cash book or records of any kind to show would not take it on any such that the would not take it on any such that the set of the money to his father and tell him that he ing for nearly a year I could not resist pointed a committee to cousider the ques- find at the inn refreshment and comfort, when this money left his hands and when it Onion there left. The attraction to and the left of a committee to cousider the question of a state of the stat

"eatable things to eat and drinkable things came back. When asked as to the note of Quinn then left. The attorney general soon to drink." Indeed, the ale-taster was once apology to Mr. Blar which William had afterward drove into the country. a public benefactor and more important than brought to him from Wilson to send to Mr. William Wilson's evidence is as follows: the mayor, and such was his benign influence Blair, the witness said the object of the note The government candidates in York county bye-law for the licensing of butchers and Major Bruce, of the Royal Grenadiers,

Dr. Campbell said :- I was requested has been further stayed until July 2.

I could not but conclude that, fond as interest by our Scotch readers as well as this year's Bisley team.

their origin, some active member of the government, who wants to amuse himself, as a relaxation from departmental duties, News and Notes.

Stormy, indeed, was the sea on which he ratic diones of society. Mourn over the facts that decreed the ards themselves, who actually believe that Blair once between the 14th October,