BY BILL.

AN ACT TO INCORPORATE THE TOWN OF CHATHAM.

POLL LIST, DELIVERY TO CLERK.
37. The Poll List kept at every election, and the list of persons who have paid their taxes, furnished by the Receiver of Taxes, as hereinafter provided, shall on the next day after the conclusion of such election (unless such day be a statutory holiday and then on the next day thereafter) be delivered by the officer or person holding the same to the Town Clerk, to remain in his office where they shall be open for inspection to any elector.

MEETINGS OF COUNCIL.
38. The Aldermen of the Town of Chatham shall meet for the transaction of business at such time and place as the Mayor or any three Aldermen may from time to time appoint, giving at least two clear days public notice in writing of such meetings, which notice shall be prepared and sent to the office of each Alderman and the Mayor by the Town Clerk; provided always, there shall be at least four quarterly meetings in each year, to be held at such time and place as the Council may by any bye-law appoint.

39. In all meetings of the Council to be held under this Act, four members with the Mayor or a Chairman shall constitute a court for the purpose or purposes for which they have been convened as aforesaid, and a majority of the members present shall determine the questions and matters submitted for consideration; and it shall be the duty of the Clerk at all meetings to keep a minute of the proceedings, in which he shall enter the names of the members present at the opening, or during the continuance of such meeting, and the members whose names have been so entered shall be deemed and taken to be to all intents and purposes present at such meeting until the same shall be finally adjourned or dissolved by the presiding officer; and the rules, orders and regulations, and resolutions and decisions of such meeting shall not be deemed illegal or contrary to the true intent and meaning of this Act, notwithstanding some of the members shall withdraw therefrom previous to such adjournment or dissolution.

40. At all meetings of the Council the Mayor, if he be present, shall preside, and in case of his absence the Aldermen present shall choose one of their number to act as Chairman and preside at such meeting; and the Mayor or Chairman so presiding shall have a casting vote, except in case of equal votes, upon any question, and he shall then have a casting vote, and all meetings of the Council shall be open to the public; provided, however, that the public shall not be admitted to committee meetings of Council, save on leave thereto by Council.

APPOINTMENT OF COMMITTEES.
41. The minutes of the proceedings of all meetings of the Council shall be kept in a book to be kept for that purpose by the Clerk, and shall be signed by the Mayor or Chairman presiding at such meeting.

IMPROPER CONDUCT AT MEETINGS OF COUNCIL.
42. If at any meeting of the Council to be held under this Act any member of the Council shall be guilty of grossly, violent or improper conduct, or shall make use of language indecent, profane, or insulting to the presiding officer or to any member of the Council present at the meeting, the Council, if it so determine, may suspend such member from the Council, and may expel such offending Alderman from the Council, or another meeting may be specially summoned to adjudicate upon the subject, the time and object of such meeting being previously notified in writing to every member, or to be left at his usual place of abode, and if five members at least, including the officer presiding at such meeting, shall so determine, the Council so assembled shall have power in such manner as may be determined at such meeting to punish the offender by reprimand or expulsion, as a majority of the members then present shall think fit; provided that in case of expulsion the person so expelled shall forthwith cease to be a member of the Council and forfeit all rights, powers and privileges enjoyed by him as such, and the Mayor shall immediately order a new election to supply the vacancy occasioned by such expulsion, as in the case of other extraordinary vacancies.

ADJOURNMENTS.
43. Any meeting of the Council to be held under this Act may be adjourned from day to day for three days in whole, and no longer.

OFFICERS.
44. At the first meeting of the Council after every annual election, or at any subsequent meeting, the said Council, if they see fit, may nominate and appoint from time to time for the said Town, an Auditor, a Secretary-Treasurer (who shall be Collector and Receiver of Town Taxes and Town Clerk), three Assessors, a Marshal, a Clerk of the Market, and so many Constables, Commissioners of Roads, Pound Keepers, Commissioners of the Poor, Hogreves, Fence Viewers, Surveyors of Logs, Surveyors of Lumber, Surveyors of Wood or Bark, or such other officers as may be found necessary according to the true intent and meaning of this Act, or any bye-law to define the duties of such officers and their respective terms of office, which, except in the case of the Secretary-Treasurer, shall not longer than one year, unless they be re-appointed; and the Council may also remove or displace any of the said officers and appoint others in their stead, and impose penalties for non-performance of duties or other misdoings of such officers, and cause such penalties to be levied and recovered by distress and sale of the offender's goods, imprisonment or otherwise as such Council may direct, and shall grant and allow in any year by stated salary or otherwise to the Auditor, Collector, Receiver, or other officer to be appointed as aforesaid, such allowance or compensation for their services as the said Council may think fit; provided that no person shall be capable of acting in any office to which he may be appointed by the Council until he shall have been sworn or have affirmed before the Mayor that he will diligently, faithfully and impartially and to the best of his ability discharge the several duties pertaining to the office to which he has been appointed, so long as he shall hold the same.

SURETIES.
45. The Secretary-Treasurer of the Town of Chatham shall be required to furnish bonds or other security for the satisfactory performance of his duties, and the accounting of moneys, in such amount as the Town Council shall determine, and such bonds or other security shall be those of an incorporated guarantee company, or other insurance company doing a guaranteed business or having an office or place of business in this Province and which company shall have complied with any regulations authorizing it to do business in this Province.

TREASURER.
46. The Secretary-Treasurer of the said Town shall receive all rates, taxes, assessments, fines, penalties, imposts or other moneys payable to the inhabitants of the said Town, or received for or on account of the revenues of the said Town under and by virtue of this Act or otherwise, or of any bye-law of the Town Council, and shall keep the accounts of the said Town, as directed by the Town Council, and such receipts and expenditures of each department in the said Town.

47. The Treasurer shall deposit the funds of the said Town as the same are by him received, in such manner as the Town Council or any Finance Committee by them to be appointed shall direct, and shall produce all books relating thereto to the Auditor when required by that officer and also at any meeting of the Town Council, when directed or required by said Council or Finance Committee to do so.

48. The Secretary-Treasurer shall not pay out any moneys otherwise than upon an order in writing of the Town Council, to be signed by the Mayor or in his absence by the Mayor presiding at any meeting of the Council, when such moneys were ordered to be paid, and countersigned by the chairman of the Finance Committee.

ACCOUNTING OF OFFICERS.
49. All persons and officers appointed to act under the authority of the said Council and entrusted with the collection or expenditure of any moneys belonging to the said Town, shall be accountable therefor to the said Council, and shall account therefor when and as the said Council may direct.

PUBLICATION OF ACCOUNTS.
50. It shall be the duty of the Secretary-Treasurer to publish in one or more of the newspapers, if any, published in the Town, or by pamphlet or circulars, one month before the annual election of Mayor and Aldermen in each year, for the information of the citizens of the said Town, a full and detailed statement of the receipts and expenditures of the Corporation during the past year, and in every such statement the different sources of revenue and the amount
