POLITICAL SERMONETTES.

Once to every man and nation Comes the moment to decide, In the strife twixt truth and error, For the good or evil side.

Dear People.-It has come to my knowledge that some among you have been heard to speak slightingly of that great organ of public opinion, the St John Telegraph. The subject is of sufficient importance to deserve our earnest consideration. I would first direct graph has no politics. You must have criticises even our Revered Dr. Pugs ey and our much beloved the Honorable Tweedie. It is true that one well known to us, and held in honor among us to this day, being much beloved by the Revered Dr. Pugsley and the Honorable Tweedie, and given important commissions by those great men, habtually described that peerless journal as the "silly Telegraph." It is also true that the St. John Gazette and the Fredericton Gleaner, which ardently support the government, have time and again assailed the Telegraph whips of scorpions. It is known, moreover, that many times directors of the Telegraph have felt the need of grace after perusing its columns, lest peradventure they yield to a fierce desire to rise and slay as many of the editors thereof as might be found at their desks. But the Teleamong us can forget its great service to the people after the forgery of the Rothesay lists? With what zeal did it pursue the forgers. With what fearssness did it strengthen the arm of the attorney general in that crisis. Be yond question, next to the splendid work of our Revered Dr. Pugsley, we must give praise and honor to the Telegraph. Who can forget the burning words, flowing in a vitriolic stream upon the perpetrators of that gross outrage upon the rights of the people? It is true the forgers were not arresthad fits. And if they had been arrested and convicted there is not the shadow of a doubt in my mind that the

Telegraph would have had a monument erected. Beloved, let not your faith in the Telegraph be shaken. I learn that some criticism is offered because there are frequent editorial changes in the staff of that paper. Do you not perceive the cause? It is the penalty of great reforming energy. It is strenuous life. No one man could stand the strain. When a paper pursues so unselfish a course as that of the Telegraph, upholding the arm of our Revered Dr. Pugsley and our much ing terrific blows upon the Detestable Hazen, and preaching the gospel of political honesty and purity-all without fee or reward-how could one man stand the strain? I believe I am revealing no secret when I say to you that if an election is called, and the Telegraph warms up to its work as the chief exponent of political righteousness, it will consume at least three editors per week. Brethren, I have a word of cheer for every one of you. Be steadfast in the faith. Do not weary in well doing. Cry the shibboleth and denounce the Detestable Hazen. If you do this and have a little patience, there is not one among you all who may not one day become one of the editors of the Daily Telegraph.

OROMOCTO.

CONVINCED AT LAST.

It is a noteworthy fact that the Globe has editorially admitted the advantages of St. John as a winter port, through which western products may be shipped to the old country. Those who remember the time when the short line was being built, and some years afterward, remember also that the Globe was quite sure both geography and mon sense were arrayed against the pretensions of this route. One of the difficulties the real friends of St. John had at that time to contend against was the derision or open hos-tility of the Globe, and those who were of its political faith. But the same farsighted policy which spanned the con-tinent with steel and made possible the present magnificent development of the freat west, was also triumphant in the the benefit, but the upholders of that policy have the satisfaction of seeing the Globe and its friends convinced by the logic of facts.

The evidence grows daily to prove that in the coming provincial campaign the Telegraph will endeavor to eclipse even its own record in misrepresentation. Its account this morning of the opposition meeting in Chatham is not en good burlesque. It is plain, stupid od-no more, no less.

At the Way in Which the Boer Generals Are Acting.

BERLIN, Oct. 2.—It devioped today that the Boer generals declined in a telegraphic message to seek presentation to Emperor William through the British ambassador, and the fact has produced an extraordinary commotion among politicians and courtiers. No later than last Monday the foreign of dice received a message from the generals announcing that they had not the slightest objection to applying for an interview through British government channels, and it was even understood here that the government of Great Britain was willing to countenance the interview. Whether that is true or not, the Pan-German committee in charge of the Boer reception was confident the generals would come with proper credentials and hence have an opportunity for an audience. Then, Wednesday, came a despatch saying the generals were determined not to apply to the government, but would leave the emperor to summon them himself. This, of course, would have put his majesty in direct opposition to Great Britain, and the announcement immediately followed that the proposed interview would not take place. The press today attacks the Boer generals in the slashing style which it had heretofore reserved for Colonial Secretary Chamberiain. Some of the newspapers oppose the generals being allowed to come here at all, and advocate the suppression of the proposed scenic reception, including girls crowning the generals with laurel wreaths.

Various explanations are given of the Boer's evil genius," devised the whole thing so as to strike back at the emperor for refusing to receive Mr. Kruger. The reception committee is advised that the generals intend to come here as though nothing had happened, and any anti-British demonstration now will certainly be stopped sharply by the police, as official circles are very much annoyed at the Boers' behavior.

BRITISH REMOUNT ENQUIRY.

LONDON, Oct. 9.—A blue book published today contains the report of the court of laquiry which has investigated the charges brought against the remount establishment of the army. With the exception of a couple of minor cases the report not only whitewashed everyone so far as the alleged diregularities are concerned, but firds that the unprecedented demands on the remount establishment were met with extraordinary success. The commissioners point out that the wastage of horses in South Africar reached the enormous rate of 120 per cent., and find that the system of purchase abroad met the requirements of the public service, but it would have been less open to criticism if the remount establishment had utilized the assistance tendered by the British military attaches at Washington and Vienna.

L. O. VISITATION.

County Master Scott E. Morrill and county officers visited Gideon L. O. L., No. 7. last night, and a very enjoyable evening was spent. After inspecting the books of the lodge, which was found in a flourishing condition, stirring addresses were delivered on the subject. The Benefit of an Orange Lodge in a Comumnity, by S. E. Morrell, L. J. Morrison, C. N. Skinner, W. B. Wallace, K. C., George Jenkins, W. M. Stanley and others.

Philip Palmer, D. P. G. M., was present. Refreshments were served and the meeting closed with the national anthem. Hon. H. A. Mokown sent regrets that owing to government business he could not be present.

The special committee of the common council appointed to receive a communication from the Portland Roiling Mills Co., were requested to meet with the directors yesterday afternoon. Jose present were Ald Christie, Millidge, Baxter and Macrae, and James Manchester, Jas. F. Robertson, R. C. Elkin, D. J. Purdy and Eben Perkins. Some time was spent in an informal discussion of the matters. Messrs. Robertson and Purdy are understood to be extremely adverse to the withdrawai of the business from St. John, though they fully appreciate the advantages which Sydney has to office. The details of the Sydney proposition were not disclosed, though it is known that they include a free site and water and exemption from taxation, besides some cash bonus. The directors claim that they have materially improved the plant since they took charge of the works and that the mill is now in first-class condition. No matter what concessions may be made by the city. Mr. Manchester was positive that no guarantee would be given that the industry would remain here for any definite time. While Sydney is very desirable from some points of view, it is admitted that there are advantages on the side of St. John, though the directors claim that the balance is largely in Sydney's favor. It is expected that the rolling mills will ask for exemption from taxation and for free water. The common council will inspect the properties some day next week.

OTTAWA NEWS.

OTTAWA, Oct. 9.—An important meeting of the cabinet will be held tomorrow, at which two questions of vital moment will be discussed, namely, the temporary suspension of the duty upon bituminous coal and the reduction of rates in coal on I. C. 4I. from Nova Scotla to upper Canadian points. It is confidently expected that both steps will be taken. Members of the city council have interviewed several of the ministers this week on these matters and are very hopeful of the result.

A BALLAD OF SEMMERWATER.

(A North Country Legend.)
Deep asleep, deep asleep,
Deep asleep it lies,
The still lake of Semmerwater,
Under the still skies.

And many a fathom, many a fathom, Many a fathom below, In a king's tower and a queen's bower The fishes come and go.

Once there stood by Semmerwater A mickle town and tall; King's tower and queen's bower And the wakeman on the wall.

Came a beggar halt and sore; "I faint for lack of bread." King's tower and queen's bower Cast him forth unfed. He knocked at the door of the eller's cot. The eller's cot in the dale, They gave him of their out-cake, They gave him of their ale.

He cursed aloud that city proud, He cursed it in its pride; He cursed it into Semmerwater, Down the brant billside; He cursed it into Semmerwater, There to bide.

King's tower and queen's bower And a mickle town and tall; By glimmer of scale and gleam of fin Folk have seen them all.

VICTORIAN ORDER OF NU

The executive of the Victorian Order of Nurses met on Saturday afternoon, says the Ottawa Journal. Miss McLeod, who has just returned from her summer excursion through the Maritime Provinces, read a most interesting report, telling of work flourishing in all branches. The wing of the Maritime hospital at Pictou which was organized last year in connection with the Victorian Order has done excellent work. The work is also progressing favorably at Buddeck and Truro. At St. John very soon a third nurse will be required. Fort William has decided to proceed with the erection of an hospital in connection with the Victorian Order of Nurses. It is to cost $6,000. The work at Halifax is under the auspices of a very influential committee and seventy-two young ladies have volunteered to collect in the city for the fund. Miss MoLeod will shortly go to Oshawa to establish an organization there.

Requests for ald in the erection of hospitals have been received from Little Metis, Quebec; Southampton, Ontario, and Boisevain, Manitoba.

A GRUESOME FIND

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Oct, 9.— Thirty dead bodies were found tonight in a cold storage plant in the rear of an lee cream factory on Eighth street. The same pipes which were used in congealing the cream for table use were connected with a small plant in a shed in the rear where they kept the bodies cool. The heads of the several colleges interested in the establishment asserted tonight that the bodies were obtained legitlimately from the penitentiaries, insame asylums and other institutions.
