Private Ernest Lord son of A Lord agent in Charlottetown of the marine and fisherank of sergeant major of his rank. He is now serving in the Bush Veldt Carbineers, Last April Private Lord was placed in charge of the horse attendants on the transport Urmston Grange. He left Newport, Wales, for Finnue, Anstralia, there took on board 500 horses, and sailed for South Africa. Only 14 horses died, on the voyage.

Miss Rosa Churchill left Thursday morning for New York, where she will spend the winter.

Among recent deaths in this province are Mrs. James L. Hayden, Vernon River, aged 87 years; Donald C. Nicholson of Orwell Cove, aged 55 years; Mrs. Henry Edmunds, Mrs. Wm. Ross, Mrs. Augustus Morris, all of Charlottetown; Lizzie Boyce, widow of the late John Godkin of Corawall, aged 25 years; Eliza May Harris of Johnson's River, aged 24 years; John A. C. Rogerson of New Haven, aged 22 years, after a lingering illness; Mrs. McDonald of West River, aged 87 years, a native of Scotland;
William Pront or Burlington, aged 68 years;
Mrs. Alex. Finlayson of Grand View, aged 56 years.

Miss Maggie Thomson, clerk in the ticket office of the Charlottetown raliway station, has gone to Calgary to spend the winter for the benefit of her health. Her father, J. L.
Thomson, accompanied her to Montreal.

Seldom have two deaths cast a deeper gloom over this city than the two which occurred on Thanksgiving day. On the morning of that day Mrs. Robert Vaniderstine, the mother of the young man, Percy Vaniderstine, who was shot, entreated the party not to go shooting because of a dream she had the night previous. A few hours afterwands her son was taken home, cold in death, Great sympathy is also felt for Captain Bowdridge of the schooner Merino, for Sydney, in the death of his son, upon whom several bales of hay fell, with fatal results.

E. P. Stavert, manager of the Summerside branch of the Bank of New Brunswick, is spending a vacation in the other provinces. A. E. Williams is relieving him.
