Once during a campaign he addressed himself particularly to an old farmer, who, he observed, followed all he said with marked attention. Bryan was much pleased. After the speech was over the candidate sought out shat old farmer. "What was it Marryat. that struck you must particularly about my speaking?"he asked. "Wa-al," said the farmer, and paused, seemingly embarrassed. But Bryan urged him to explain, so at last he cleared his throat and remarked-"Mr. Bryan, you're the only speaker I ever heard We are prepared to give a whose whole set of back teeth I could

ON THE ROYAL MENU

Sir Harry's calm reply; "but if you do the Great White Mother will send her soldiers, and you and your wives No Guesses and your people will all be killed," This made the king waver, and after a consultation with his court he decided to forgo the meal, But it was not enough for the captive. "You" nust send me down the river in your white brothers meet me." And so great an impression had his sang-froid created that this was no sooner said than it was done.

DELAYED TOO LONG.

Mark Twain makes an appeal It is grown and treated wifh science against long sermons thus: "Some years ago iu Hartford we all went to church on a hot, sweltering night to hear the annual report of Mr. Hawley a city missionary, who went around finding the people who needed help and didn't want to ask for it. He told of the life in the cellars where poverty resided; he gave instances of the heroism and devotion of the poor. The poor are always good to each other. When a man with millions gives, we make a great deal of noise. Its noise in the wrong place. For its the widow's mite that counts. Well, Hawley worked me up to a great state I couldn't wait for him to get through. I had $400 in my pocket. I wanted to give that and borrow more to give. But he didn't pass the plate, and it grew hotter and we grew sleepier. My enthusiasm went down, down $100 at a time, till finally, when the plate William Jennings Bryan has a habit came round, I stole ten cents off of lead to crime.

The Visit of Lord Bereford.

Lord Charles Beresford can be sure of a rousing reception in this country. He is chief of a type fast disappearing—the rugged sailor, the old salt, the bluff sea dog, whom we all loved in the days of Captain

None of your diplomatic concealments for him. He spoke his mind, whether on deck or in the House of Commons. The sailor is not an orator. He has, or had, a fine contempt for the merely talking person, as Carlyle had a fine coutempt 'o: the House of Commons, "buzzing and talking creatures, duller than dishwater." He was retired; but, in an King Alfonso, who is fond of emergency, his services could be de-And we will give it to mingling with his people, some time pended on.
