GREEKS PLAY GAME TODAY AT CAPITAL

The Marathons will have a fairly busy time of it this week and local fans expect to see the Greeks fatten up their "games won" column to a very considerable extent before the week ends.

The first engagement of the week will be at Fredericton today when the Marathons meet P. J. Duggan's braves in what should prove an interesting contest. If the day is warm, it is probable that George Winter himself will be on the mound for the Marathons. Winter has been "going some" since he came here this season and every time he was called on for box duty, he proved he was there with the goods. If the weather is not warm enough for George to work at his best, Joe Tarbell will probably perform. Tarbell is bound to come back after Friday and may be depended upon to pitch a classy game.

On Tuesday the Houlton Reds will be here when Al Sweet will do the honors. Sweet has won both his games here so far this year and it is expected he will have it on Houlton when the two teams clash tomorrow.

The Marathons will present the same lineup against Houlton tomorrow as against Woodstock on Saturday.

On Wednesday Chick Fraser will be here to play second base and Winkler, the big college twirler, from the University of Vermont, will be with him. Both Fraser and Winkler will get into the game the last of the week when Fredericton will be here for games on Friday and Saturday. With Houlton and Fredericton both here, the fans should be assured of three fast ball games on Tuesday, Friday and Saturday. Woodstock will be the holiday attraction for two games on July 1st.

GREEKS DEFEAT WOODSTOCK SATURDAY BY SCORE 8 TO 3

About two thousand persons attended the game of ball on the Marathon grounds Saturday afternoon and witnessed the Marathons turn the tables on Woodstock by winning with a score of eight to three. Sweet was the man on the mound for the Greeks and he performed his work well. He was found for but seven hits, while he struck out nine of the Woodstock men and had eight assists. Many of his assists were the result of some excellent fielding of very hard balls and while he had one error, it was one of those almost excusable ones.

The visitors started in with Wade pitching and he was quite wild at times and the two errors credited to him were wild pitches which allowed men to score on each occasion. He remained in for four innings, when he was hit for five safe ones, gave four men their bases on balls, hit a man and had two wild pitches. He was taken from the shortstop position and put in the box. He was found for three hits and eight assists. Williams was taken from the shortstop position and put in the box.
