TRANS-CANADA LIMITED PROVING BIG WINNER

The Coast to Coast Train Reached Calgary on the Dot of Scheduled Time—Passengers Are Delighted With Trip.

Calgary, Alta., June 4.—The new C. P. R. transcontinental service, which will, for the future, be known as the Trans-Canada Limited, if the first westbound train that arrived at Calgary, Wednesday morning is any criterion, is destined to be intensely popular. The train reached here on the dot of time. The passengers expressed much satisfaction at the excellent speed that had been maintained throughout the run, which averaged 42 miles an hour. The train arrived here at 9:30 a. m., leaving for the west fifteen minutes later.

Absolutely the best service on the North American continent, was the way one enthusiastic Montreal merchant put it to a representative of the Calgary Herald, who was present at the depot when the big locomotive and its eight cars arrived. "You can assure the public that the enterprising policy of the C. P. R. in saving business men a whole day in the run from coast to coast will be thoroughly appreciated."

Other passengers stated that, notwithstanding the high speed, there was actually less vibration noticeable than with ordinary trains. Twenty Calgary passengers boarded the new "Flying Dutchman" for the coast.

HIS NARROW ESCAPE

"Say," said a citizen entering the police station, "I ain't an alien enemy and don't want any trouble. A little girl just asked me how many stars were in the American flag, and I didn't know. The grocer didn't know, and two other men didn't know. I don't want to be one of those things they call a pro."

OBITUARY

Mrs. Jane Menzie.
After an illness of nearly three months Mrs. Jane Menzie, widow of John Menzie, died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. William Murray, Belleisle, on Friday, May 30th. The deceased, who was in her 85th year, was one of the best known and most highly respected residents of that part of Kings county. Her husband predeceased her in 1896. There will be a large circle of friends who will regret the passing of one who by her unflinching good humor and hospitable kindness had won her way into all hearts. The funeral, which was somewhat delayed to allow of the arrival of Mrs. Menzie's two daughters from New York, took place on Tuesday, June 3rd, Rev. George Scott of St. John conducting the services at the home and the grave. Interment was in Highfield in the family lot there. Besides Mrs. Murray, deceased is survived by her two daughters, Mrs. Wheeler and Miss Menzie of New York. There are also a number of nephews, among whom is Dr. W. H. McAllister of Sussex. A brother and sister also survive.

MISS MARY BROSNAN

It was with keen regret that citizens learned of the death of Miss Mary Brosnan, who took place at her home in Main street, after a few months' illness. ### SEVEN SENTENCE SERMONS.

Character is an atmosphere rather than a sum of qualities.—Anon.

I am not bound to make the world go right, but, only to discover and to do with cheerful heart the work that God appoints.—Jean Ingeles.

I think we all know well what courage is: Not thews, not blood, not bulk, not bravery: Its highest title, patience.—John Davidson.

No one is useless in this world who lightens the burden of it to anyone else.—Charles Dickens.

And whatsoever ye do, in word, or in deed, do all in the name of the Lord Jesus, giving thanks to God the Father through him.—Col. 3:17.

Admit your ignorance, and few will blame you; Pretend to knowledge, and the world will shame you.—Anon.

When people who are tolerably fortunate in their outward lot do not find in life sufficient enjoyment to make it valuable to them, the cause generally is caring for nobody but themselves.—J. S. Mill.

BERLIN STIRRED UP OVER POLITICAL SITUATION

Increased Spartan Activities Are the Cause of An Intense Feeling.

Berlin, Tuesday, June 4.—(By the Associated Press).—The political situation brought about by increased Spartan activities has become more tense since the discovery of the body of Rosa Luxemburg, and the manner in which Gustav Noske, the Minister of Defence, ordered it taken to Zossen, twenty-two miles south of Berlin. In giving the order, it is claimed, the minister ignored the law, which requires that the corpse be notified and the body be placed in a municipal morgue.

THEY CONSERVED

He had prolonged his visit till half-past ten o'clock, and it had been an enjoyable evening. As he arose to go he became nervous and stammered out: "Miss—Miss Routh, you do not read the newspaper, do you?"

"Why, of course," she promptly answered. "Don't you suppose that every woman and girl wants to know about the war?"

"Yes, maybe you have read about the new revenue tax?"

"Yes, I have read all about it."

"And, in order to raise a billion dollars more, they are going to put a heavy tax on—on—on marriage licenses."

"Yes, I saw that," she demurely replied.

"After sixty days they are going to put the tax on. This is a time to study economy and conservation, you know. If any couple was thinking about—about getting married, you know, they could have this tax by hurrying up a little."

"Yes, we must all conserve," she blushing answered. And they went back to the parlor and had the whole matter settled in twenty minutes.

SHE DOUBLED HIS CROP

"Say, how did you get along with your harvest last fall?" he asked of a farmer.

"Oh—pretty well—pretty well," was the reply. "I had no hired men of course, but I picked up help, here and there, and got through."

"Did you have any women working on your farm?"

"Yes, I had one for two or three days. She said she knew all about farming, and I gave her a hoe and set her to digging potatoes. I don't think she had ever been on a farm before in her life, but she was anxious to earn some money. Say, it made me laugh, in spite of my loss."

"How did you lose?" was asked.

"Why that woman dug twenty bushels of potatoes in one day. She cut about ten bushels in two with her hoe, because she didn't know how to open the hills, and, when I discovered what she had done, and scolded her a little about it, she replied:

"So I have cut ten bushel of potatoes in two, have I? Well, you are the gainer by it. I have just doubled your crop. Where before you had ten bushels, you have twenty now!"

"What SHALL I Do?"

"How shall I get past this crisis? What will come next?"

These are the questions which are to-day causing keen mental anxiety to many business men and making them old before their time.

After the four years of exceptional strain during the war many a man finds himself now burdened down as never before with problems—financial and otherwise—which are more than he can solve.

Is it any wonder that the nervous system gives out? Is it any wonder that there comes moments of discouragement and despondency?

There is nothing which breaks down nerve cells so rapidly as mental anxiety or worry if you choose to yield to it.

And it is under just such circumstances that Dr. Chase's Nerve Food proves of very great benefit, for it feeds the human system the very ingredients from which Nature rebuilds the wasted nerve cells and restores the mental vigor.

The headaches, the brain fog, the sleeplessness and indigestion, which are the usual accompaniments of exhausted nerves, soon disappear when the rebuilding process is established by the use of Dr. Chase's Nerve Food.

For the man in the office as well as for the woman in the home Dr. Chase's Nerve Food has proven the best means obtainable of restoring tired, strained nerves to health and vigor.

Try it when you are tired, and brain weary and feel inclined to look on the dark side of things, for these are the indications that your nervous system is in need of nutrition which it is not obtaining from the food you eat.
