

WORLD FAMOUS ANIMALS HERE

A Hippodrome Secured by Mr. Spencer for St. John Exhibition

BEST ATTRACTIONS FROM CONEY ISLAND

Wonderful Elephant Act, Monkey Theatre, and Animal Circus--Trained Cuckoos and Other Features--Dida, the Latest Craze in the States Also Included.

All who have had the privilege and pleasure of visiting Coney Island have some idea of the immense crowds which congregate in such places as the grand promenade at Luna Park.

This plucky man was none other than little Pete Barlow, the most noted of living elephant trainers.

When it was announced recently that P. B. Spencer had secured some mammoth elephants for the coming exhibition...

John Frawley, St. George. Death came very suddenly on Wednesday to John Frawley, one of the best known residents of St. George.

On the steamer's arrival at St. George, about an hour after the sad affair of the family of Mr. Frawley was notified.

Another novelty will be the Montague's Cockatoo Circus, direct from Atlantic City, where they are engaged for the entire season.

Another Headliner. In the small hall will be seen the mysterious Dida, or "the creation of a woman out of nothing."

Robert Telfer. Robert Telfer died in the Home for Invalids Thursday morning. He was seventy-four years of age.

Customs Revenue for the Year. The following is a comparative statement of customs revenue collected at the port of St. John, N. B., during the month of June, 1906.

Robert Telfer. Robert Telfer died in the Home for Invalids Thursday morning. He was seventy-four years of age.

Customs Revenue for the Year. The following is a comparative statement of customs revenue collected at the port of St. John, N. B., during the month of June, 1906.

Robert Telfer. Robert Telfer died in the Home for Invalids Thursday morning. He was seventy-four years of age.

Customs Revenue for the Year. The following is a comparative statement of customs revenue collected at the port of St. John, N. B., during the month of June, 1906.

OBITUARY

Miss Rebecca Kingston. Miss Rebecca Kingston died Wednesday evening at the home of her sister, Mrs. R. Tyner, 111 Broad street, aged fifty-two years.

Julius T. Garden. Woodstock, N. B., July 4.—(Special)—Julius T. Garden, one of the members of Garden Bros., the other being Arthur Garden, died at an early hour this morning from diabetes.

Mrs. G. Moody Reid. Hopewell Hill, July 3.—Flora, wife of G. Moody Reid, of Albert, died on Saturday at her home there after quite a lengthy illness of consumption.

Mrs. Adolphus Allan. Sackville, N. B., July 3.—The death took place very suddenly in the death room of the St. John Hospital, Mrs. Adolphus Allan, of Dover (N. H.), who had recently arrived to spend some weeks with her daughter, Mrs. Alvia Spence.

Charles A. Patterson. The sudden death of Charles A. Patterson, which occurred at Westfield yesterday has caused widespread regret.

John Frawley, St. George. Death came very suddenly on Wednesday to John Frawley, one of the best known residents of St. George.

On the steamer's arrival at St. George, about an hour after the sad affair of the family of Mr. Frawley was notified.

Another novelty will be the Montague's Cockatoo Circus, direct from Atlantic City, where they are engaged for the entire season.

Another Headliner. In the small hall will be seen the mysterious Dida, or "the creation of a woman out of nothing."

Robert Telfer. Robert Telfer died in the Home for Invalids Thursday morning. He was seventy-four years of age.

Customs Revenue for the Year. The following is a comparative statement of customs revenue collected at the port of St. John, N. B., during the month of June, 1906.

Robert Telfer. Robert Telfer died in the Home for Invalids Thursday morning. He was seventy-four years of age.

Customs Revenue for the Year. The following is a comparative statement of customs revenue collected at the port of St. John, N. B., during the month of June, 1906.

Robert Telfer. Robert Telfer died in the Home for Invalids Thursday morning. He was seventy-four years of age.

Customs Revenue for the Year. The following is a comparative statement of customs revenue collected at the port of St. John, N. B., during the month of June, 1906.

Robert Telfer. Robert Telfer died in the Home for Invalids Thursday morning. He was seventy-four years of age.

Customs Revenue for the Year. The following is a comparative statement of customs revenue collected at the port of St. John, N. B., during the month of June, 1906.

Robert Telfer. Robert Telfer died in the Home for Invalids Thursday morning. He was seventy-four years of age.

Customs Revenue for the Year. The following is a comparative statement of customs revenue collected at the port of St. John, N. B., during the month of June, 1906.

LOCAL NEWS

Wild strawberries are now on the market at ninety cents a pound and forty to fifty cents a half-pail.

A moose jumped over the cliff at the Reversing Falls Tuesday morning at 7 o'clock. The animal's neck was broken.

J. Simpson Lord, who has just resigned the principality of the Fairville school, after serving three years, left yesterday for his home on Deer Island.

In the published account of the closing of the school at Silver Falls, the name of Joseph E. McLamus was missed from the list of prize winners.

Captain Rupert Wry, of the schooner Helen Mitchell, has been held in $100 bail, charged with damaging No. 10 weir on April 17. His case will be heard at the next court sitting on the second Tuesday in August.

Among the passengers on the Calvin Austin, which arrived Tuesday, were some bound for the shrine of Ste. Anne de Beauséjour. They went through on the regular train carrying the St. John pilgrims.

The cottages at Brown's Flats have changed the name of that place to Beaulieu. Plans of the new cottages erected there this summer and last are those of A. C. Brown, F. S. Thomas, R. A. Sinclair, T. Graham, Brantley Vard, C. H. Warden, Samuel Boyce, and John Bullock.

The first of the English children to be brought to New Brunswick by Mrs. Elvira Close will reach the province on Monday or Tuesday of next week.

One of the principal objects of the town of Fairville is to improve the condition of the roads near the city.

At a meeting of the commissioners of the Provincial Hospital Thursday afternoon, it was decided, on the report of the chief commissioner, Hon. C. H. LaBilios, to sell by auction or tender and in lot for building purposes, the field between the C. P. R. tracks and the main road.

When seen by a Telegraph reporter after the meeting, the chief commissioner said it was the intention of the government to have the field in Fairville surveyed at once by a competent surveyor, who would also draw up plans showing such streets, lanes and building lots as would be most suitable for the locality.

One of the principal objects of the town of Fairville is to improve the condition of the roads near the city.

At a meeting of the commissioners of the Provincial Hospital Thursday afternoon, it was decided, on the report of the chief commissioner, Hon. C. H. LaBilios, to sell by auction or tender and in lot for building purposes, the field between the C. P. R. tracks and the main road.

When seen by a Telegraph reporter after the meeting, the chief commissioner said it was the intention of the government to have the field in Fairville surveyed at once by a competent surveyor, who would also draw up plans showing such streets, lanes and building lots as would be most suitable for the locality.

One of the principal objects of the town of Fairville is to improve the condition of the roads near the city.

At a meeting of the commissioners of the Provincial Hospital Thursday afternoon, it was decided, on the report of the chief commissioner, Hon. C. H. LaBilios, to sell by auction or tender and in lot for building purposes, the field between the C. P. R. tracks and the main road.

When seen by a Telegraph reporter after the meeting, the chief commissioner said it was the intention of the government to have the field in Fairville surveyed at once by a competent surveyor, who would also draw up plans showing such streets, lanes and building lots as would be most suitable for the locality.

One of the principal objects of the town of Fairville is to improve the condition of the roads near the city.

At a meeting of the commissioners of the Provincial Hospital Thursday afternoon, it was decided, on the report of the chief commissioner, Hon. C. H. LaBilios, to sell by auction or tender and in lot for building purposes, the field between the C. P. R. tracks and the main road.

BUILDING BOOM FOR FAIRVILLE

Government Decides to Sell Property Between C. P. R. Tracks and Road

PLANS READY IN ABOUT A MONTH

What is Proposed in the Way of Improvements in Provincial Hospital—Putting the Roads Near the City in Better Condition.

At a meeting of the commissioners of the Provincial Hospital Thursday afternoon, it was decided, on the report of the chief commissioner, Hon. C. H. LaBilios, to sell by auction or tender and in lot for building purposes, the field between the C. P. R. tracks and the main road.

When seen by a Telegraph reporter after the meeting, the chief commissioner said it was the intention of the government to have the field in Fairville surveyed at once by a competent surveyor, who would also draw up plans showing such streets, lanes and building lots as would be most suitable for the locality.

One of the principal objects of the town of Fairville is to improve the condition of the roads near the city.

At a meeting of the commissioners of the Provincial Hospital Thursday afternoon, it was decided, on the report of the chief commissioner, Hon. C. H. LaBilios, to sell by auction or tender and in lot for building purposes, the field between the C. P. R. tracks and the main road.

When seen by a Telegraph reporter after the meeting, the chief commissioner said it was the intention of the government to have the field in Fairville surveyed at once by a competent surveyor, who would also draw up plans showing such streets, lanes and building lots as would be most suitable for the locality.

One of the principal objects of the town of Fairville is to improve the condition of the roads near the city.

At a meeting of the commissioners of the Provincial Hospital Thursday afternoon, it was decided, on the report of the chief commissioner, Hon. C. H. LaBilios, to sell by auction or tender and in lot for building purposes, the field between the C. P. R. tracks and the main road.

When seen by a Telegraph reporter after the meeting, the chief commissioner said it was the intention of the government to have the field in Fairville surveyed at once by a competent surveyor, who would also draw up plans showing such streets, lanes and building lots as would be most suitable for the locality.

One of the principal objects of the town of Fairville is to improve the condition of the roads near the city.

At a meeting of the commissioners of the Provincial Hospital Thursday afternoon, it was decided, on the report of the chief commissioner, Hon. C. H. LaBilios, to sell by auction or tender and in lot for building purposes, the field between the C. P. R. tracks and the main road.

When seen by a Telegraph reporter after the meeting, the chief commissioner said it was the intention of the government to have the field in Fairville surveyed at once by a competent surveyor, who would also draw up plans showing such streets, lanes and building lots as would be most suitable for the locality.

One of the principal objects of the town of Fairville is to improve the condition of the roads near the city.

At a meeting of the commissioners of the Provincial Hospital Thursday afternoon, it was decided, on the report of the chief commissioner, Hon. C. H. LaBilios, to sell by auction or tender and in lot for building purposes, the field between the C. P. R. tracks and the main road.

When seen by a Telegraph reporter after the meeting, the chief commissioner said it was the intention of the government to have the field in Fairville surveyed at once by a competent surveyor, who would also draw up plans showing such streets, lanes and building lots as would be most suitable for the locality.

One of the principal objects of the town of Fairville is to improve the condition of the roads near the city.

WEDDINGS

Heenan-Kelly. Miss Margaret Kelly, daughter of Peter Kelly, of South Bay, was married in St. Rose's church, Fairville, Tuesday to William Heenan, of Fredericton.

Wade-Williams. The Anglican church at the Cedars was, on Monday, the scene of the wedding of Miss Charles Williams, daughter of Mrs. Byard Williams, of White River, to Herbert Wade, of Brocton (Mass.).

Trite-Lutes. An early morning wedding took place Tuesday evening in St. John's church, when Rev. Mr. Clark, assisted by Rev. Dr. P. Fotheringham, married Miss Ethel M. Trite, daughter of Henry McFarlane, and Louise Lutes, daughter of William Lutes, of Brocton (Mass.).

Monoton, N. B., July 4.—(Special)—The home of Emley Lutes, Steeves Mountain, was the scene of an interesting wedding this afternoon, when his daughter, Mabel L., was wedded to Ernest Trite, of Brocton (Mass.).

Miss Clara Rae Gleason, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. L. Gleason and a niece of Mrs. C. Gleason, was married to Robert Duncanson, of St. John, on Tuesday, June 30th, at the residence of her parents, home, Brocton (Mass.).

Miss Clara Rae Gleason, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. L. Gleason and a niece of Mrs. C. Gleason, was married to Robert Duncanson, of St. John, on Tuesday, June 30th, at the residence of her parents, home, Brocton (Mass.).

Miss Clara Rae Gleason, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. L. Gleason and a niece of Mrs. C. Gleason, was married to Robert Duncanson, of St. John, on Tuesday, June 30th, at the residence of her parents, home, Brocton (Mass.).

Miss Clara Rae Gleason, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. L. Gleason and a niece of Mrs. C. Gleason, was married to Robert Duncanson, of St. John, on Tuesday, June 30th, at the residence of her parents, home, Brocton (Mass.).

Miss Clara Rae Gleason, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. L. Gleason and a niece of Mrs. C. Gleason, was married to Robert Duncanson, of St. John, on Tuesday, June 30th, at the residence of her parents, home, Brocton (Mass.).

Miss Clara Rae Gleason, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. L. Gleason and a niece of Mrs. C. Gleason, was married to Robert Duncanson, of St. John, on Tuesday, June 30th, at the residence of her parents, home, Brocton (Mass.).

Miss Clara Rae Gleason, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. L. Gleason and a niece of Mrs. C. Gleason, was married to Robert Duncanson, of St. John, on Tuesday, June 30th, at the residence of her parents, home, Brocton (Mass.).

Miss Clara Rae Gleason, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. L. Gleason and a niece of Mrs. C. Gleason, was married to Robert Duncanson, of St. John, on Tuesday, June 30th, at the residence of her parents, home, Brocton (Mass.).

Miss Clara Rae Gleason, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. L. Gleason and a niece of Mrs. C. Gleason, was married to Robert Duncanson, of St. John, on Tuesday, June 30th, at the residence of her parents, home, Brocton (Mass.).

Miss Clara Rae Gleason, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. L. Gleason and a niece of Mrs. C. Gleason, was married to Robert Duncanson, of St. John, on Tuesday, June 30th, at the residence of her parents, home, Brocton (Mass.).

Miss Clara Rae Gleason, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. L. Gleason and a niece of Mrs. C. Gleason, was married to Robert Duncanson, of St. John, on Tuesday, June 30th, at the residence of her parents, home, Brocton (Mass.).

Miss Clara Rae Gleason, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. L. Gleason and a niece of Mrs. C. Gleason, was married to Robert Duncanson, of St. John, on Tuesday, June 30th, at the residence of her parents, home, Brocton (Mass.).

Miss Clara Rae Gleason, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. L. Gleason and a niece of Mrs. C. Gleason, was married to Robert Duncanson, of St. John, on Tuesday, June 30th, at the residence of her parents, home, Brocton (Mass.).

Miss Clara Rae Gleason, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. L. Gleason and a niece of Mrs. C. Gleason, was married to Robert Duncanson, of St. John, on Tuesday, June 30th, at the residence of her parents, home, Brocton (Mass.).

Miss Clara Rae Gleason, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. L. Gleason and a niece of Mrs. C. Gleason, was married to Robert Duncanson, of St. John, on Tuesday, June 30th, at the residence of her parents, home, Brocton (Mass.).

Miss Clara Rae Gleason, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. L. Gleason and a niece of Mrs. C. Gleason, was married to Robert Duncanson, of St. John, on Tuesday, June 30th, at the residence of her parents, home, Brocton (Mass.).

"KIDNAPPED" HUSBAND OF A ST. JOHN BRIDE

Friends Give a Surprise to Carl T. Derry and Annie T. Deagan at Their Wedding in Brocton, Mass.

In the Brocton (Mass.) Enterprise of June 29 appeared a story of a wedding in which the groom was kidnapped and kidnapped alone, consented to be captured also.

"Having sworn to take him for her husband 'until death do us part,' Mrs. Carl T. Derry strenuously objected to parting with her husband a few hours when some of his friends tried to kidnap him last evening.

The ceremony was performed at 7:30 last evening by Rev. W. H. Morrison, the contracting parties being Miss Theresa Deagan and Carl Toby Derry. The wedding was held at the residence of Mrs. Deagan, a sister of the bride.

The bride wore a gown of point d'esprit trimmed with ribbons, and carried bride roses. She was attended by her sister, Mrs. Bertrand L. Moore, as matron of honor, and Mrs. W. Moore acted as best man.

A reception was held from 8 till 10, about seventy guests being present from St. John (N. B.), Boston and the adjacent towns. Selections were given by the groom and his bride.

The groom has resided in Brocton for the greater part of his life. Mr. and Mrs. Hugh McCarty, of St. John, uncle and aunt of the bride, and Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Nickerson, also of St. John, and also uncle and aunt of the bride, were present at the ceremony.

The annual meeting of the Rodhesay Bowling and Quits Club was held at the Belle View Hotel, Rodhesay, on June 30. The question of the future of the club was discussed by the members present.

Eighty-six candidates are trying the Normal school and matriculation examination here. Miss Marion King, of Buctouche, is visiting her aunt, Mrs. W. M. Miller, Salters.

A few mornings ago Conductor Dunbar saw two moose near the Snowfield barn at the station and two deer were seen on the Bremier farm recently. They trotted down to the river and swam across to the other side.

Rev. Robt. Lang, of Halifax will preach in St. Andrew's church next Sunday. Mrs. Patrick Connors and her son, Joe, will leave tomorrow on a visit to Antigonish.

Professor and Mrs. A. B. Cornell left on a visit to Quebec on Tuesday. On account of the disposition of steamboats the Alexandria will not make her usual trip down river Tuesday, the 10th.

The county accounts committee of the municipal council met in Newcastle Tuesday to pass accounts. Miss Joy Gaynor went to Beaulieu on Tuesday.

Dr. and Mrs. Cox will go to their summer home at Bay du Vin tomorrow. Miss Clara Hay, of Bangor (Me.), is home on a visit.

The little son of Rev. J. Morris MacLean met with a painful accident a few days ago. He was running with a stick in his mouth when he fell, the stick went down his throat, inflicting a bad cut.

Rev. Harry Strothard is visiting his parents, Rev. James and Mrs. Strothard. Mr. and Mrs. John Brander, of Newcastle, spent Monday with relatives in town.

Lumbermen differ as to whether or not the recent agreement, made in Boston, to curtail use of production of spruce fifty per cent in the month of July will be observed in Maine.

The inland revenue receipts here for June last were $20,044.23, as against $23,322.81 in June, 1905.

HOME FROM PICNIC TO LEARN HUSBAND WAS LOST AT SEA

Edward Brown of Carleton and William Duplissie of Erin Street Went Down With the Ella G. Eells

This information was received Thursday in a despatch from Alchius (Me.) The schooner was bound from New Bedford (Mass.) to Windsor (N. S.), coal laden. According to the despatch, the captain was washed on the rocks on a piece of wreckage and rescued by life savers.

The vessel sailed from this port about three weeks ago with a cargo of fish. The schooner was bound from New Bedford (Mass.) to Windsor (N. S.), coal laden. According to the despatch, the captain was washed on the rocks on a piece of wreckage and rescued by life savers.

By the foundering of the big three-masted American schooner Ella G. Eells off Libby Island, in Machias Bay, Wednesday in a heavy easterly gale, the crew of four men, including two whose names are in this city, went to a watery grave. Capt. W. A. Eells, also of this city, escaped, after a terrible experience.

This information was received Thursday in a despatch from Alchius (Me.) The schooner was bound from New Bedford (Mass.) to Windsor (N. S.), coal laden. According to the despatch, the captain was washed on the rocks on a piece of wreckage and rescued by life savers.

The vessel sailed from this port about three weeks ago with a cargo of fish. The schooner was bound from New Bedford (Mass.) to Windsor (N. S.), coal laden. According to the despatch, the captain was washed on the rocks on a piece of wreckage and rescued by life savers.

By the foundering of the big three-masted American schooner Ella G. Eells off Libby Island, in Machias Bay, Wednesday in a heavy easterly gale, the crew of four men, including two whose names are in this city, went to a watery grave. Capt. W. A. Eells, also of this city, escaped, after a terrible experience.

This information was received Thursday in a despatch from Alchius (Me.) The schooner was bound from New Bedford (Mass.) to Windsor (N. S.), coal laden. According to the despatch, the captain was washed on the rocks on a piece of wreckage and rescued by life savers.

The vessel sailed from this port about three weeks ago with a cargo of fish. The schooner was bound from New Bedford (Mass.) to Windsor (N. S.), coal laden. According to the despatch, the captain was washed on the rocks on a piece of wreckage and rescued by life savers.

By the foundering of the big three-masted American schooner Ella G. Eells off Libby Island, in Machias Bay, Wednesday in a heavy easterly gale, the crew of four men, including two whose names are in this city, went to a watery grave. Capt. W. A. Eells, also of this city, escaped, after a terrible experience.

This information was received Thursday in a despatch from Alchius (Me.) The schooner was bound from New Bedford (Mass.) to Windsor (N. S.), coal laden. According to the despatch, the captain was washed on the rocks on a piece of wreckage and rescued by life savers.

The vessel sailed from this port about three weeks ago with a cargo of fish. The schooner was bound from New Bedford (Mass.) to Windsor (N. S.), coal laden. According to the despatch, the captain was washed on the rocks on a piece of wreckage and rescued by life savers.

By the foundering of the big three-masted American schooner Ella G. Eells off Libby Island, in Machias Bay, Wednesday in a heavy easterly gale, the crew of four men, including two whose names are in this city, went to a watery grave. Capt. W. A. Eells, also of this city, escaped, after a terrible experience.

This information was received Thursday in a despatch from Alchius (Me.) The schooner was bound from New Bedford (Mass.) to Windsor (N. S.), coal laden. According to the despatch, the captain was washed on the rocks on a piece of wreckage and rescued by life savers.

The vessel sailed from this port about three weeks ago with a cargo of fish. The schooner was bound from New Bedford (Mass.) to Windsor (N. S.), coal laden. According to the despatch, the captain was washed on the rocks on a piece of wreckage and rescued by life savers.

By the foundering of the big three-masted American schooner Ella G. Eells off Libby Island, in Machias Bay, Wednesday in a heavy easterly gale, the crew of four men, including two whose names are in this city, went to a watery grave. Capt. W. A. Eells, also of this city, escaped, after a terrible experience.

This information was received Thursday in a despatch from Alchius (Me.) The schooner was bound from New Bedford (Mass.) to Windsor (N. S.), coal laden. According to the despatch, the captain was washed on the rocks on a piece of wreckage and rescued by life savers.

The vessel sailed from this port about three weeks ago with a cargo of fish. The schooner was bound from New Bedford (Mass.) to Windsor (N. S.), coal laden. According to the despatch, the captain was washed on the rocks on a piece of wreckage and rescued by life savers.

By the foundering of the big three-masted American schooner Ella G. Eells off Libby Island, in Machias Bay, Wednesday in a heavy easterly gale, the crew of four men, including two whose names are in this city, went to a watery grave. Capt. W. A. Eells, also of this city, escaped, after a terrible experience.

This information was received Thursday in a despatch from Alchius (Me.) The schooner was bound from New Bedford (Mass.) to Windsor (N. S.), coal laden. According to the despatch, the captain was washed on the rocks on a piece of wreckage and rescued by life savers.

CASTORIA For Infants and Children. The Kind You Have Always Bought

MR. ROBERTSON IS CONGRATULATED Dry Dock Work Likely to be Begun by September.

MR. ROBERTSON IS CONGRATULATED Dry Dock Work Likely to be Begun by September.

MR. ROBERTSON IS CONGRATULATED Dry Dock Work Likely to be Begun by September.

MR. ROBERTSON IS CONGRATULATED Dry Dock Work Likely to be Begun by September.

MR. ROBERTSON IS CONGRATULATED Dry Dock Work Likely to be Begun by September.

MR. ROBERTSON IS CONGRATULATED Dry Dock Work Likely to be Begun by September.

GIVE SHARE TO THE FREE KINDERGARTEN

Rodhesay Bowling and Quits Club Decide to Disband.

Rodhesay Bowling and Quits Club Decide to Disband.

Rodhesay Bowling and Quits Club Decide to Disband.

Rodhesay Bowling and Quits Club Decide to Disband.

Rodhesay Bowling and Quits Club Decide to Disband.

Rodhesay Bowling and Quits Club Decide to Disband.

Rodhesay Bowling and Quits Club Decide to Disband.

Rodhesay Bowling and Quits Club Decide to Disband.

Rodhesay Bowling and Quits Club Decide to Disband.

Rodhesay Bowling and Quits Club Decide to Disband.

Rodhesay Bowling and Quits Club Decide to Disband.

SCHOONER SUNK OFF GRAND MANAN

SCHOONER SUNK OFF GRAND MANAN

SCHOONER SUNK OFF GRAND MANAN

SCHOONER SUNK OFF GRAND MANAN

SCHOONER SUNK OFF GRAND MANAN

SCHOONER SUNK OFF GRAND MANAN

SCHOONER SUNK OFF GRAND MANAN

SCHOONER SUNK OFF GRAND MANAN

SCHOONER SUNK OFF GRAND MANAN

THE BARKER SETTLEMENT

THE BARKER SETTLEMENT

THE BARKER SETTLEMENT

</