

TIDE

W. P. ANDERSON, Esq.
Chief Engineer

SIR,—I have the Survey. The principal
throughout the year,
results, and in the v
The most important s new tables for British of appreciation. The made it possible to do Vancouver, and obser to that harbour. The tables for 1902; as v
The further informat navigation on our We

The tidal observ
fully worked up; and mation immediately a
'Notice to Mariners' i These observations we
the relations between Admiralty surveys of

W. P. D.—7½