

hereby agree to take the said share, subject to the same conditions.

As witness our hands the                      day of

17. Any member desiring to withdraw from the Society, shall be allowed to do so, upon presenting a written request to the Board of Directors, when all sums paid in as withdrawable shares, and all benefits arising therefrom, up to the declaring of the last dividend, shall be paid within one month.

18. Each member shall receive out of the receipts of the Society (after providing for the expenses thereof,) in each quarter, interest not exceeding six per cent. per annum upon every paid-up share standing to his account in the books of the Society, such interest to begin from the first of the month following the payment in full of his share or shares.

19. The net proceeds of all business carried on by the Society, after providing for the expenses of management, the proper reduction in the value of fixed stock, and for such interest upon the subscribed capital as aforesaid, shall, from time to time, be applied by direction of the regular quarterly meetings, either to increase the capital or business of the Society, or be divided among the members in proportion to the amount of their purchases at the store during the quarter.

20. In case of the death of a member, the Board of Directors shall cause to be paid to the widow, family, or legal representative of deceased, the share or shares held by said member, and all the benefits due at the time of his death. Or, at the option of the widow, she may continue to avail herself of all the privileges and benefits of the Society, which had belonged to her late husband, as long as she remains a widow, provided these provisions do not conflict with the Will of the deceased.
