

description), now as this Defendant believes, within the Division for the County of (or now within the County of or now within the jurisdiction of this Court, as the case may be), is justly and truly indebted to this deponent in the sum of , for goods sold and delivered by this deponent to (or as the case may be), Master (or agent, &c.) of the said vessel, for an account of the said vessel, (or as the case may be). And deponent further saith that the said debt was contracted within the County of (County where attachment issues), and that to the best of Deponent's belief the owner of the said vessel resides out of the (or, in the case mentioned in the third section of this Act, out of the jurisdiction of this Court),

Sworn, &c.