

LUXEBERRY WHITE ENAMEL

Whitest White · Stays White

In any room throughout the house the effect of white enamel is one of rich and permanent beauty. Luxberry White Enamel is check-less, fadeless and whitest white.

Because of its hard, tough surface it is easy to keep clean. Finger marks and spots simply melt away beneath the dampened cleaning cloth.

And for floors use Liquid Granite—the waterproof varnish kiddies can't mar with little heels that pound the floor in play. The weight of heavy moving furniture won't crack it, nor scrubbing with hot water turn it white.

Liquid Granite is a high quality Varnish through and through. Like other celebrated Berry Brothers' finishes its worth and quality are the result of over 56 years' experience in the manufacture of varnishes.

You can bring this experience to bear in the finishing of your new home or the refinishing of your worn dining room floor. The advice of our experts is yours for the asking, no matter how great or small your problem may be.

That is the value of Canada's manufactures for one year—in money. But what of their value measured in the comfort, the happiness and the well-being of the whole country?

To produce them gives employment to over six hundred thousand workpeople, whose total wages amount to $288,000,000 each year.

These workers, with their families and those who benefit by their purchasing power, number nearly one-third the population of Canada—supported by Canadian manufactures.

How readily it is apparent that the prosperity and happiness of every Canadian—of yourself—depend on the continuous employment of these people—on the consumption of goods "Made in Canada."

Canadian factories support one-third of our population. Are you helping to support Canadian factories?

Rare.—"Sadie, what is a gentleman?"
"Please, ma'am," answered the well-bred child, "a gentleman's a man you don't know very well."—Pittsburg Chronicle-Telegraph.

Defined.—A youngster whose father was editor of a small town daily, was asked to write a composition on Professional Men.

"When an editor makes a mistake there is a lawsuit and swearing and a big fuss; but if a doctor makes one there is a funeral, cut flowers and perfect silence. A doctor can use a word a yard long without him or anybody knowing what it means; but if the editor uses one he has to spell it. If the doctor goes to see another man's wife he charges for the visit; but if the editor goes, he gets a charge of buckshot. When the doctor gets drunk it is a case of being overdone by the heat and if he dies it is from heart trouble; when the editor gets drunk it's a case of too much booze, and if he dies it's the jimjams. Any old college can make a doctor; an editor has to be born."

He Knew.—Lawyer—"But, if you were not present when the defendant threw the soup-plate at his wife, how can you swear that she aggravated him into doing it?"

"I'm her ex-husband."—Life.

A Poser.—The faults you see in the other fellow are nine times out of ten your own faults; otherwise you would not recognize them. Just think that over.

Good Proof.—Daddy—"No, yer mother never dressed the way you girls do today to catch a husband."

Daughter—"Yes, but look at what she got."—Boston Record.

The Crisis in the Barber Shop.
The barber to the right of me was hocking for the Kaiser,
The barber to the left of me was hacking for the Czar,
A gentleman from Greece was shearing of my fleece,
While very near a swart Italian stropped his simitar.

And when presently discussion, polyglot and fervid,
On political conditions burst about my chair,
I left the place unshaven—I hope I'm not a craven,
But I sort of like to wear a head beneath my hair!
—Don Marquis in the New York Evening Sun.

Enough!—Willie—"Paw, what is the difference between genius and talent?"
Paw—"Talent gets paid every Saturday, my son."—Cincinnati Enquirer.

Dangerous Wit.—"What is the charge?" asked the magistrate.
"Nuthin' 't all," snickered the prisoner at the bar; "this's on me."—Buffalo Express.

Women's Wrongs.—"Just my luck! Sez e' can't go to the front because 'e's a married man."—London Opinion.

Again the Tempter.—The sailor had been showing the lady visitor over the ship. In thanking him she said:
"I see that by the rules of your ship tips are forbidden."
"Lor' bless yer 'eart, ma'am," replied Jack, "so were the apples in the Garden of Eden."—Tit-Bits.

Substantiated.—Her Father: "I don't like to say it, Marie, but I think your fiance is a brainless idiot."
Marie—"I'm beginning to think you're right, papa. He has been tangoing three months now and hasn't invented a new step yet."—Life.

Consolation.—"How did your novel come out?"
"Well," replied the self-confident man, "it proved beyond all doubt that it isn't one of these trashy best-sellers."—Washington Star.

D. Dee, Digitarienne.
Dorothea Dee did digits
(That's what she was hired for),
Dorothea made men igit;,
Eyes she had that gave 'em figits,
Made 'em feel like bloomin' migits;
That's what she was fired for.
