Most of all... some of... tiny bits of... oh, fuck... none of the contents of ROTTING STONE are copyrighted 1984 by SPUNKY HILL BUREAU PRESS INC. Do what you like with anything, see if we care! All rights unreserved, general admission only. Publisher does not assume responsibility for any unsolicited offspring; had a vasectomy in 1975. ROTTING STONE (KAL 007) is published whenever editors are sober enough to pull this thing off - except in July and at year's end, when we publish lots of photos and still charge the full cover price. The subscription price is $159.00 a year for anyone stupid enough to send us the money. In Canada, still seized at the border by the RCMP.

POSTMASTER: Send envelopes with money to ROTTING STONE, Room 282 SUB, Edmonton Alberta.

This edition published yesterday for distribution all over the University of Alberta campus in Edmonton, Alberta, CANADA.
