

Superstars to get bigger in the future

The game went on until the medal presentation when one of the largest cheers of the day came from the Giant corner as team member Devon Williams took second place in the nine and under boys event.

"This was a lot of fun," said Williams.

Dacanay pledged his help for next year's Superstars competition. "I think it could have been a little more organized," he said.

Close to 200 boys and girls entered The Superstars. Times' circulation manager Ian MacPherson promises the event will be bigger and better next year.

"This was a test run for it," said MacPherson. "A lot of people came up and promised to help in next year's Superstars."

The City of Mississauga donated the use of Clarkson Pool. Also helping out in the pool events were Bob McFee, a coach with the Mississauga Aquatic Club and Clarkson pool supervisor Bill Clark. "All the volunteers were a great help," said MacPherson.

The Superstars was comprised of five events — the obstacle course, the softball throw, foot race, swim race and fitness circuit.

Competitors were given points for their placings and the person with the highest total in all five events was the winner. The contest was open to anyone under 17.

In the 17 and under boy's event, Dane Als was tops with 120 points. Mandy Clayton was the top girl with a similar score.

Bruce Fleming won the 15 and under boys' event with 110 points followed by Mike Humphreys (79) and Steve Nadeau (65). Monica Klepits won the 15 and under girls' competition with 100 points beating Lisa MacDonald (95) and Helen Laidler (85).

Chris Rose was tops in the 13 and under boys with 59 points. Mark Thomas (54) and Rich Colengelo (48) were next. In the girls' event, it was Tracey Smith with 80 followed by Wanda Williams (64) and Anne McFee and Julie Sibley, both with 55.

John MacDonald was the 11 and under champ boys' with 70 points. Justin LaFayette (60) and Ian Brooks (57½) were second and third.

In the 11 and under girls', Andrea Morra won with 105 points with Katharine Irwin (68) and Tina Karski (54) as runners-up.

Robbie Batrie (64), Williams (56) and Todd Gradson (55) were tops in the nine and under boys'. Kim Sokoloski (91½), Tina Berger (91) and Jane Gair (65½) were winners in the nine and under girls'.

In the seven and under boys' Nathan LaFayette (100), Robbie Wolfe (82) and Chris Stone (65½) were winners and in the girls' division, Sheryl Summerton (98), Holly Coolen (94) and Tanya Blair (69) took top honors.

Wrights takes win

Wendy Strong and Joan O'Callaghan shared the pitching duties for Wright's Rockettes in a 25-19 win over Rowntree's Esso in Forest Glen Ladies Softball action last week.

Sue Platz blasted a homer for the winners. O'Callaghan and Bonnie Langille came through with doubles and Kay Wright slammed a triple.

Peni Davis slugged a round-tripper for Rowntrees. Marg Offer, Leslie Way and Ann Ward belted doubles.

In other action, Humberview Motors took a 13-10 decision from Carpet Country. Terry Paxton took the win and doubles came from Carole LaBonte, Pat Gordon, Kerry Gilbert, Sylvia Taylor and Jean Whitehouse.

Marg Montgomery was the losing pitcher. Terry Young and Nancy Beaton smacked doubles for Humberview and triples came from Darlene Terpstra, Karen Heissner and Ann Dale.
