

Whenever, from or as a result of an investigation by a Board under the provisions of this Act, it appears to the satisfaction of the Governor in Council that with regard to any article of commerce there exists any ^{trust} conspiracy, combination, agreement or arrangement of any kind among manufacturers of such articles or dealers therein to unduly promote the advantage of the manufacturers or dealers at the expense of the consumers, the Governor in Council may admit the article free of duty, or so reduce the duty thereon as to give the public the benefit of reasonable competition in the article, if it appears to the Governor in Council that such disadvantage to the consumer is facilitated by the duties of customs imposed on a like article.
