OTTAWA, April 6, 1933.

Dear Mr. Gaby: R. J. D. Stanley

I wish you would take special note of the attached letter. This young man has been very highly commended to me. Probably we have no place for him now, but he is the type of young man whom (from what I have heard of him) we would like to have when work warrants.

Yours very truly,

Mr. F. A. Gaby,
190 University Ave.,
Toronto, Ontario.
