

Is it fair to Britain see, Meighen that this group of Foreign Financiers hold sufficient shares of C.P.R. stock to control C.P.R. Operations and when the income approaches the higher brackets for taxation they use the accrued profits to buy up further control of Canada's facilities and resources?

Or is it more fair for Canada to take over and operate all Transportation turning over to Britain those accruing profits?

What more can I do?

Politicians are much better paid for their lack of effort than the Relief Recipients for their efforts.

All all politicians of the same calibre as is indicated in the enclosed letter? Hold his name as confidential, though I don't think he is worthy of any person's confidence.

This is another politician I wrote last session asking he propose such beneficial progressive move.

My politics are clearly indicated by the enclosed 'Eastw Prayin'. For the typing of five or six copies I have thanked Mr. Jackman. I had sent him a copy in my first letter and later found I did not have a copy for myself, so wrote asking him to type of a copy if he so desired and send the original back to me. He returned the original and also several typed copies.

For your information - in confidence - a printed copy of this has been mailed Premier Churchill and in the ordinary course of events should have reached
