Dear Mr Meighen,

I join your host of friends and admirers in congratulating you on your eighty-fourth birthday and wishing you many happy returns of the day. You emphasize the fact that hard work and heavy responsibility do not shorten a man's life - if he is made of the right stuff.

I am still connected with National but do not sit at a desk. Mrs McNally had been failing in health almost five years and confined to her home the past two years. She passed away May 17th. We would have been fifty years married Dec 16th this year. We were very happy. Fortunately I have two sisters one a widow, the other resigning from a business position she held for forty years, who have accepted my invitation to live with me.

With kindest personal regards
Sincerely Yours
H. Lorne McNally
